Lord Liverpool has the Honour to send your Royal Highness a letter which he has received from Lord Holland together with the Copy of the Answer which Lord Liverpool has returned to it.

Lord Liverpool at the same time transmits to your Royal Highness information, the letter which he received some days ago, from Mad<sup>rs</sup> Noy, and the Answer which Lord Liverpool after consulting your Royal Highness confidentially returned to Mad<sup>rs</sup>

By your Royal Highness confidential inquiries were decidedly of opinion that

Your Royal Highnesses undoubtedly are in possession of the opinion that it was of the utmost importance, and on the ground of humanity that there should not appear to be any delay or delay on the part of your Highnesses which might have the effect of holding our hopes which all our efforts be realized

I have the honor to submit to your Royal Highnesses that if Lord Howard should transmit Mad<sup>rs</sup> My Representation in a letter to your Royal Highnesses it will only be necessary for your Royal Highnesses to direct Mr.
McMahon to acknowledge in your Royal Highnesses name the receipt of it

I should have had the honor and audience of your Royal Highnesses Yours

Your Royal Highness with pleasure hear what Lord Alford has to say but your Royal Highness can not be expected to return any answer.

Lord Alford has communicated to Lord Alford privately his opinion upon the subject.
