

Enclosure -

Unperformed Royal Promises, the former delivered by the late Mr Melje, the latter by the Rt Honble John Mac Mahon —

March 29th 1784

I promise to make John Manners Esq, or his Eldest Son an Irish Peer, when opportunity offers

George P. —

July 14th 1807

The promise, which I made the late John Manners Esq, on the 29th of March 1784 of granting an Irish Peerage to himself or to his eldest Son, whenever it should be in my power,
I hereby acknowledge, & I now convert

This promise to Sir Will^m Manners Bt into an English Barony either to himself or his eldest Son, or other Sons in succession whenever the opportunity may offer —
George P

In Sir W^m Manners of 1 Feb 1816