

Ld. Castlereagh to H.R.H.

A.A. No. 629

21872-3

London Sunday 3 P.M.

Ld. Castlereagh has the honor to acquaint your Royal Highness, that it appears by a private letter from Mr. Rose, that the messenger sent from Paris to Coburg followed Prince Leopold to Berlin, and had set off on his return by Paris with his Highness's answer & may be therefore hourly expected.

As the Prince may properly follow the answer without delay, perhaps it may be desirable for your Royal Highness to signify your Commands previous to his knowledg, that steps should be taken to approve him of your Royal Highness's orders, as to going to Brighton or otherwise

Lord Carteret has written to your Grace to endeavor to procure certified Copies of the ^{original} Letters - your Royal Highness must have observed that those Letters were Translations, (which are always of imperfect Authour)

As considerable Inconvenience as it pro in has Caed part unne

 and take you
 in

Ld. Castlereagh to H.R.H.

A.A. No. 629

21873

since from the accumulation of Business in Mons^r de Osmont's Hands, Lord Castlereagh has taken the liberty of receiving his Credentials on your Royal Highness's part - The Entry in the Gazette will announce the several Circumstances and that the Ceremonies of Reception and taking Leave will take place on your Royal Highness's arrival in Town

Lord Tyrconnell

(James O'Connell)

1786