

Lady Salisbury 6th. P. 4.

21947

I take the liberty to trouble your Royal Highness to say that Cranborne did not arrive in town till six o'clock yesterday, not being inform'd how early the business in the House of Commons was to come on, he went directly, but was

Lady Salisbury 6th. R. H.

too late. He will certainly attend the next day.

I beg leave to have the honor to subscribe my self Your Royal Highness's

Most devoted & faithful Humble Servant

E. M. Salisbury
