My Dear Sir

I am much obliged to you for your note, which has afforded me real pleasure from its giving so satisfactory an account of Sir Roger Ascham's death, and dis--putting any claim, which Sir Henry Walpole's son at Paris, might otherwise have erected.

I hope Sir Roger Ascham will occur no more from Birmingham, or any from any other quarter, and that he will return to town on its neighbourhood with his strength perfectly renewed.

My dear friend very much and you left the stud. He has been strongly advised the same. See Pitt, and we intend to go by sea to Waterbury the business of the War, if she should be able to bear the expense.

I have had two Applications

In the various relations of your of the Red Chamber, see you in the newspaper, the other you see Edward Capel.

They are with good men the best Politics always but I think he perfectly satisfied with the Peace Reports Determination in favour of the sea the may upon the whole prefer I am with great

Yours very respectfully
