Dear Mr 22 - 1816

In

I have the happiness of stating Experiments were made last Saturday by five of the Deal Boatmen before about 1000 of their Townsmen - including the highest characters of the town, & this morning fifty have been distributed on giving the accompanying receipt - so great is the desire of them to see to possess them & so fully sensible of the advantages of obtaining them should their necessity of selling about 400 of the most valuable & active - young & old have applied for them & it is with the most painful feelings of regret from the contracted state of the funds I have been under the necessity of refusing them request -

I own this number which is nearly double what I intended having at Deal will much diminish the funds for further distribution - Should it be the
