Nov. 16th 1816.

22005

Sir Francis Burdett presents his respectful compliments to Sir Benjamin Bloomfield, & in the name of his son, & his own, returns him many thanks for his kindness & attention, & begs leave at the same time to express his feelings of gratitude & duty, the 'not of surprise, towards His Royal Highness The Prince Regent, for his kindness & condescension, both in affording him great comfort, & in designing to express His wishes for his recovery —
