My Dear Sir

Many thanks for your notes.
The Gazette now shows your very kind attention to my wishes.

When you return to Town I will thank you very much for what you undertake respecting the M. S. of P. O. Ch: -

With regard to Currier's way thro' life, in all these matters, has been to let them do their worst without attempting to direct them, otherwise them by letting them understand that no proceeding publicly should have any effect on my granting this de: mands. On this occasion, as on all others of the sort, I should follow

That Lord M's name should not be brought forward. It may therefore be right that you should know that what ^{he} said to me, in the only letter I ever had from him was that his object had been to take orders & that his object was to be provided in a devery.

He is well content and was contented at the University - I have conveyed what he said to the Lord Moira - and I have no objection to his being informed that I have done so. But not as a Pious offering -

Most truly Yrs
