My Lord

The Note which accompanied the return of the preceding Warrants for the Month of September, was a literal obedience to the Commands of the Prince Regent; and in reply to your Lordship's remarks upon it I beg permission to observe that whatever Commands His Royal Highness is pleased to tender me with, it is my Duty to fulfil them.

I cannot but regret that your Lordship should feel pained by that Note on account of my being the Amencensis on the occasion, at the same time it appears to me that your
