

Enclosure

22273 - A

May it please Your Royal Highness

The Ladies who belonged to her Late Majesty as Maids of Honor and Bedchamberwomen, presume to address Your Royal Highness and to represent that by the Decision of Parliament they will be deprived of so large a Portion of their incomes (particularly the Maids of Honor and eldest Bedchamberwoman) as occasions a change and distress: they are at a

87888

Left how to meet — Her Majesty from the consideration and great Benevolence which marked Her Character, selected Ladies, to whom the situations they held, were of the greatest advantage their own means being much limited, — Many of these Ladies who have had the honour of belonging to Her Late Majesty's Household
a great number of years, feel

Enclosure

22274

their Loss Severely; they entreat Your Royal Highness's protection and that your Royal Highness would be pleased to accept from them every sentiment of Respect, Duty and Attachment

1789

[Faint, illegible handwriting on aged paper]