

Baron Eben

30th April 1819

22295

To

His Royal Highness George Prince Regent of England

H.. H.. H.. H.

Most gracious Prince

The pressing Circumstances imboldens Your unfortunate Supplicant, to lay before Your Royal Highness a additional Claim of Your Royal Benevolent Heart, over and above, already sent to Your Royal Highness dated the 26th of the present Month, humbly conceiving Your Royal Highness Acquiescence to the following proposition to be a material Support to Your craving Supplicants Existence not only in his present Dilemma, but will likewise appease Your unfortunate Servants, mind, in having wiped of the Stain, and still deserving Your Royal Pity.

Your Royal Highness Supplicant, is During his abode in this City, become acquainted, not only with the Citizens at large large but likewise, with the Military composing that Body, to make himself usefull in joining their Ranks, in some Capacity or other as Comander been suggested to him by several of the most respectable Members provided Your Royal Will to that effect could be obtained Your unfortunate Supplicant will rest for ever satisfied, and in Duty bound to subscribe himself

Your Royal Highness

Hamburg the 30th April 1819.
Kopfen Markt N<sup>o</sup>. 68.

most unalterable, most obedient humble Servant
Fred<sup>r</sup>. Baron Eben,