

S<sup>r</sup> B. Bloomfield to British Bowmen

July 5 1819

22319

July 5 1819

Sir B. Bloomfield has had the honor to submit to the Prince Regent the Address of the British Bowmen of the Marshes of Wales, soliciting His Royal Highness to become the Patron of their Society: and Sir Benjamin is honored with His Royal Highness's Commands to signify to the President that His Royal Highness is pleased to acquiesce with the desire of the Society, and to express His

His best wishes for its prosperity -

Carlton House
5th July 1819