

Sr B. Bloomfield to Gen. Taylor

22339-40

Royal George Yacht

August 21st 1829

My dear Taylor

The Prince Regent is of opinion that, in the present state of the Funds raised for the purpose of Building the new Church; it ^{of new windows}

Sir B. Bloomfield to Gen. Taylor

22340 would be unadvisable to decide upon the quantity of subscription on the part of His Majesty & of the Royal Family - The inadequacy^{cy} of the sum supplied, ^{which appears} ~~object~~ ^{with reference} to the undertaking, has led His Royal Highness to this decision, ~~and~~ which may be explained to the Chairman of the Committee for the management of the ~~object~~ undertaking.

[Faint, illegible handwritten text on a rectangular piece of paper pasted onto the main document.]