Declaration

I, George the IV.th by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain & Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, do solemnly and sincerely in the Presence of God profess, testify and Declare That I do believe that in the Sacrament of the Lords Supper there is not any Transubstantiation of the Elements of Bread and Wine into the Body and Blood of Christ at or after the Consecration thereof by any Person whatsoever AND that the Invocation or Adoration of the Virgin Mary or any other Saint, and the Sacrifice of the Mass, as they are now used in the Church of Rome, are superstitious and idolatrous AND I do solemnly in the presence of God profess, testify, and Declare That I do make this Declaration, and every part thereof, in the plain and ordinary Sense of the words read

read unto me, as they are commonly understood by English Protestants, without any Evasion, Equivocation or mental Reservation whatsoever, and without any Dispensation already granted me for this purpose by the Pope, or any other Authority or Person whatsoever, or without any Hope of any such Dispensation from any Person or Authority whatsoever, or without thinking that I am or can be acquitted before God or Man, or absolved of this Declaration or any part thereof, although the Pope, or any other Person or Persons, or Power whatsomever, should dispense with or annul the same, or declare that it was null or void from the Beginning.
