

A.A.
No.
794
Enclosure.

22424 - 5

Note on the New Diplomatick
Arrangements
March 1820.

Note
on the new Diplomatick
Arrangements

Mr. Buzot to proceed to St. Peterburgh, as Your Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary & Plenipotentiary about the 1th of May next.

Mr. Stratford Canning to proceed to The United States of America, as
Your Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary on or before the same period.

The Honble Fredk Lamb
to repair forthwith to Frankfort

Frankfort, and to reside
 there as Your Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary
 and Minister Plenipotentiary to the German Confederation.

=

Mr. Brook Taylor to succeed Mr. Lamb as Your Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary
 to His Majesty The King of Bavaria.

=

Mr. Alex.^r Cockburn to succeed Mr. Taylor as Your

Your Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary
at the Court of The King of Wirtemberg. —

=
Mr. Mellish now Consul
General to The Hanse Towns, to be for the present charged with Your Majesty's Affairs at these Cities. —

=
Sir Robert Liston to be permitted to return home from Constantinople.
Mr. Bartholomew Here to be sent there im= mediately, as Your Majesty's

Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary, and to remain there in that Character until the Arrival of Lord Strangford at the Porte, as Your Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary
and Plenipotentiary, which will probably take place next Autumn.

On Mr. Ker's return
Mr. Jorrick Hamilton to succeed Him as Your Majesty's Secretary of Embassy at the Sublime Porte. —

W.

Mr. Vaughan, to leave Madrid, and to be appointed Your Majesty's Secretary of Embassy at Paris. —

2
Mr. Lionel Hervey to succeed Mr. Vaughan as Your Majesty's Secretary of Embassy
at Madrid. —

2
Mr. Frederick Cathcart to be appointed Your Majesty's Secretary of Legation to the Swiss Confederation, and to proceed to Switzerland immediately charged with Your Majesty's Affairs.

==