

H. H. 6th. Liverpool

Apr. 25 1820 A.A. No. 808

22441

The King has received the minute of cabinet
of the 24th April 1820 -

~~His Majesty is desirous~~ to make every personal sacrifice for the public interests but he ~~and etc.~~

The King is willing to adopt the draft of the speech as proposed to begin with the emphatic words "after so
much deliberation"
in the paragraph which relates to ~~respects~~ the Civil list -

The King is fully sensible of the importance of public economy and

The King

to

Lord Liverpool

April 25. 1820

(Income for the support of the splendour and dignity of the Sovereign)

is desirous to make every personal sacrifice on his part for that object. ~~but considering~~ ~~the ~~great~~ ~~importance~~ ~~of~~ ~~the~~ ~~royal~~ ~~dignity~~~~ ~~and splendour of the~~ Crown and ~~which~~ <sup>the King will</sup> never require that the intended arrangements
shall be disturbed
unless it shall be found to be inconsistent with the dignity and splendour of the Crown which the King ~~can~~ considers to be <sup>inseparable</sup> ~~essential to the~~
the public interest
C. G. B.
April 25

Carlton House