

Lord S. Vincent
13th Feb, 1820

To be answered in the most cordial manner

22542

183

See,

My health not permitting me at this moment to pay my personal respects and Duty, to your Majesty, allow me to offer the expression of my heartfelt Sympathy on the loss of our late beloved, and venerable Monarch, together with my ardent wishes for a long and prosperous reign to your Majesty of whom I shall ever be,

Respectts
13 February 1820

The most faithful,
and dutiful servant
S. Vincent

[Faint, illegible handwritten text on aged paper, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side. The text is arranged in several lines and appears to be a letter or document.]