

Ld. Liverpool to H. H.

A.A. No. 1064

22942

Release
May 1823

Lord Liverpool beg leave most humbly to acknowledge Your Majesty's goodness, in acquainting him with the arrangement which Your Majesty has been graciously pleased to make, as to the Office ^{Receiver} of the Duchy of Cornwall, vacant by the Death of Lord Mordaunt, and to assure Your Majesty that Lord Liverpool is fully sensible of the Justice of Your Majesty's Decision in favour of Mr Knight, as well as of Your Majesty's great Consideration of Mr Knight's Service

Duke of Wellington
To the King - respecting His Majesty's Orders to

A.A. No.
1065

Mr. Ashurst
May - 1823

22943

London May 2 - 1823

I had the honor of receiving Your Majesty's Commands yesterday evening; and I have communicated to Mr. Ashurst Your Majesty's most gracious intentions. He is very sensible of Your Majesty's kindness towards him; and will himself express his gratitude to Your Majesty.
I cannot report my execution of Your Majesty's Commands upon this Occasion without at the same time expressing how sensible I and of Your Majesty's kindness in selecting me as the Channel of communication & that without Your Majesty's gracious intercession in his favour.

All which is submitted to Your Majesty most devoted & faithful Subject and Servant
W. Pitt

Duke of Wellington to Sir H. Knighton

22944-5

London May 5th 1823

My dear Sir William
The Rev^d John Jay Pembroke son of Lord Harrington who began life as my aide de camp and afterwards became a Cavalryman, was appointed by His Majesty as Duke of Cornwall
& the Seneschal of the Duchy;

Duke of Wellington to Sir H. Knighton

22945 and he has asked me to exchange the Regency with Mr Smith the term of Mr Smith for

the term of Mr Smith for the term of Mr Smith; and he has requested me to apply to His Majesty for his favour and consent to this exchange.

As there is now no Chancellor of the Exchequer of Great Britain, I don't know through what channel

I ought to approach His Majesty upon this occasion; but as it is a matter in which the King must have a personal feeling, and I know that he conferred the Regency upon Mr Lambton, and that he feels a great regard for Lord Barnington and his family, I shall be very much obliged to you if you will ascertain from me whether it would be disagreeable Her Majesty I have this proposition brought before him over by her to William Gore's mother-in-law, the King's

Geo. By to Thos. Murrable.

Royal Barges & Barge Masters.

22946

Mr. By's respectful
Compliments to Mr.
Murrable (begs to say) that he has just been informed by Mr. Rowland of His late Majesty's Privy Purse Office that on the 24 Feb^r 1811 he paid to the Executors of the late Earl of Leinster who died in 1810. The balance due from His Lordship's situation of Keeper of the King's Privy Purse.
Mr. By was desired by Mr. Rowland to say that Mr. R. would be happy to give any information to Mr.
Murrable whenever he wished it.

8 May 1823

Thos. Alex. Roberts to Sir H. Keightow

22947-8
Royal Barges & Barge Masters.

Sir William

King's Bargehouse
Lambeth May 10. 1823

I take the liberty of sending you on the other side a copy of a letter addressed to me by Messrs Forster Cooke & Freve of Lincoln's Inn Solicitors to His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury inviting me to take a Lease of a Bargehouse at Lambeth held by Lord Cardigan in trust for His Majesty - from the tenor of that letter and also from communication I had with Mr. Freve I collected Lord Cardigan had refused or declined to renew the Lease and therefore his Grace's Solicitors offered and granted me a Concurrent Lease I was ^{aware} and was told by Mr. Freve that if I had refused to accept the proffered Lease it would have been offered to and taken by some other person - which was the only motive I had in taking the Lease as had it fallen into a Strangers hand it would have been both injurious and annoying to me in Trade as the premises are in the center of the Spot whereon my business is carried on Sir I am most anxious to comply with the wishes of the Trustee of His Majesty on this occasion and will if it is thought fit to assign the Lease on receiving back the Fees & Fines paid by me to the Archbishop of Canterbury being allowed the interest thereon and the same use of the Shores as I have had during the Lease to Lord Cardigan

Thos.

2294

Sir William I have seen Mr. Grove since I waited upon ^{you} who will if you think fit to apply to him acquaint you that I did not seek to obtain the Lease and that it was offered to me as I have before stated

Am

Sir William

Your very Hum^{ble} Servant

Tho^s - Mex^r - Roberts

Kings Barge-Master

To Sir William Knighton

Sir

to offer

Rich-

Card

or ne

of tak

you it in

To. M

Thos. Alex. Roberts to Sir H. Kington

22948

Enclosure

Copy

Sir

Lincoln's Inn Nov^r 19. 1816

We are desired by the Archbishop of Canterbury to offer you if you be the Executor of your Uncle the late M^r Rich^d Roberts a Renewal of the Burgage house held by Lord Cardigan In trust for His Majesty it not having been renewed by him and as the late M^r Roberts was desirous of taking a Lease subject to the present Lease we will give you the refusal in case you are desirous of taking it in that case we will communicate to you the Terms

Yours
Forster, Cooke & Forre

To. M^r J. A. Roberts

MS. B. 1. 1. 1.

[Faint, illegible handwriting on lined paper]

10 March 1825

Duplicate of foregoing

22949 - 50

Royal Barges & Barge Masters.

Sir William

King's Bargehouse
Lambeth May 10. 1623

I take the liberty of sending you on the other Side a Copy of a letter addressed to me by Mess^{rs} Fowster Pooke & Fovere of Lincolns Inn Solicitors to His grace the Archbishop of Canterbury inviting me to take a Lease of of a Bargehouse at Lambeth held by Lord Cardigan in trust for His Majesty from the tenor of that letter and also from communication I had with Mr. Fovere I collected Lord Cardigan had refused or declined to renew the Lease and therefore his grace's Solicitors offered and granted me a Concurrent Lease I was aware and was told by Mr. Fovere that if I had refused to accept the proffered Lease it would have been offered to and taken by some other person which was the only motive I had in taking the Lease as had it fallen into a Strangers hand it would have been both injurious and annoying to me in Trade as the premises are in the center of the Spot whereon my bussiness is carried on. Sir William I am most anxious to comply with the wishes of the Trustee of His Majesty on this occasion and will if it is thought fit assign the Lease on receiving back the Fees & Fines paid by me to the Archbishop of Canterbury being allowed the Interest thereon and the same use of the Shores as I have had during the Lease to Lord Cardigan. Sir William I have seen Mr. Foxe since I waited upon you who will if you think fit to apply to him acquaint you that I did not seek to obtain the Lease & that it was offer'd to me as I have before stated

Sir

We

to offer

held by

Majesty

And as a Lease

you the

it in

Terms

of M-

-

-

-

Duplicate of foregoing

22950

Copy

Lincoln's Inn

Sir

19 Nov^r 1806

We are desired by the Archbishop of Canterbury to offer you if you be the Executor of your Uncle the late M^r. Rich^d. Roberts a Renewal of the Burghouse held by the late Lord Cardigan In trust for His Majesty it not having been renewed by him and as the late M^r. Roberts was desirous of taking a Lease Subject to the present Lease we will give you the refusal in case you are desirous of taking it in that case we will communicate to you the Terms

Y^rs^r
Thos^r. Cooke & Freese

To M^r. Thos^r. Roberts

10th May 1823.

Mr. Robert

to

Sir Wm Knighthon

Dr. J. Keate to Sir H. Keighton

A.A. No. 1066

22951

Edin. May 18. 1823.

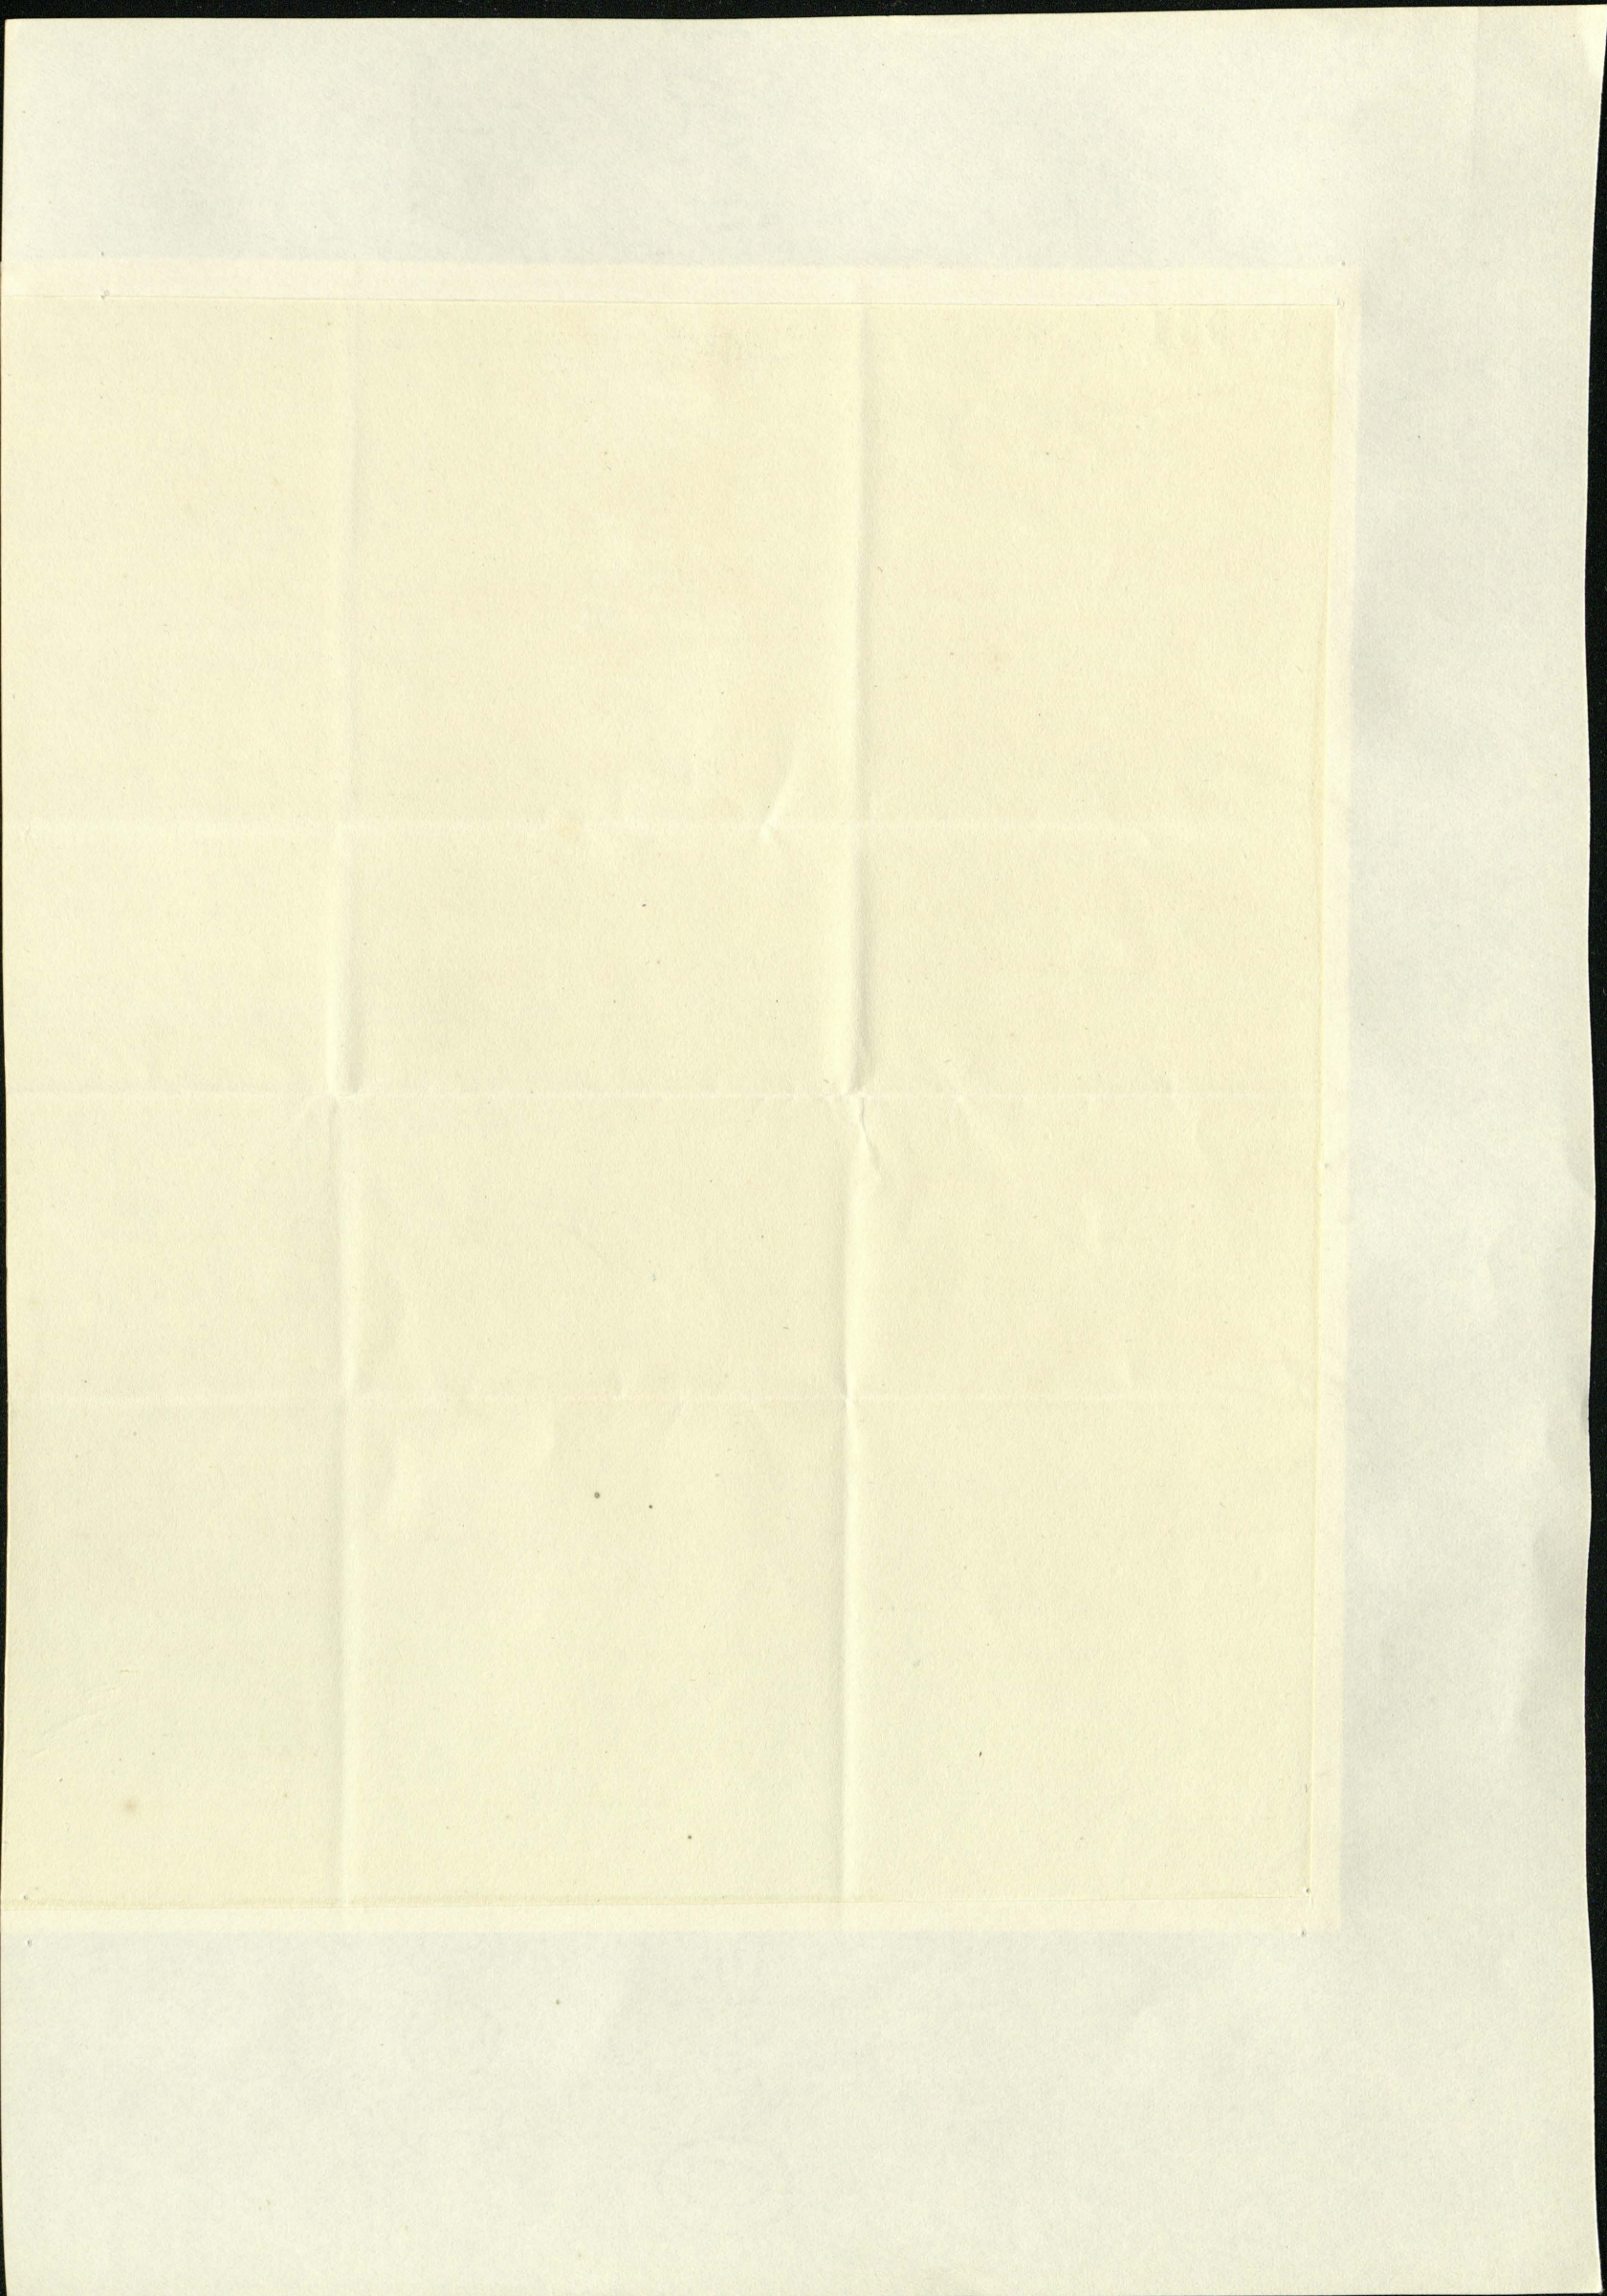

Sir

I beg leave to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of this morning with the magnificent enclosure from his Majesty, which will be received by the Captain of the School on Tuesday with all the gratitude, which so gracious an act merits.

We are very much flattered by his Majesty's condescension in expressing his regret at not being able to be present at mountem - His Majesty's absence, as well as the cause of it, is severely felt and sincerely lamented by all Stourians, and by none more than by him, who has the honor to subscribe himself

Sir

Your most obedient and humble servant
J. Keate

Dr. J. Keate to Sir H. Keightley

A.A. No. 1067

22952

Eton May 19. 1823

Sir

I have always been in the habit of drawing out the order of the Mounten procession, and presenting it to his Majesty upon his arrival at Eton; and as His Majesty takes so kind an interest in the ceremony, I have thought it possible that though absent from the scene, he might still desire to cast his eyes upon the description of it — You will therefore greatly oblige me by laying the enclosed with my humble duty before his Majesty.

I have the honor to be

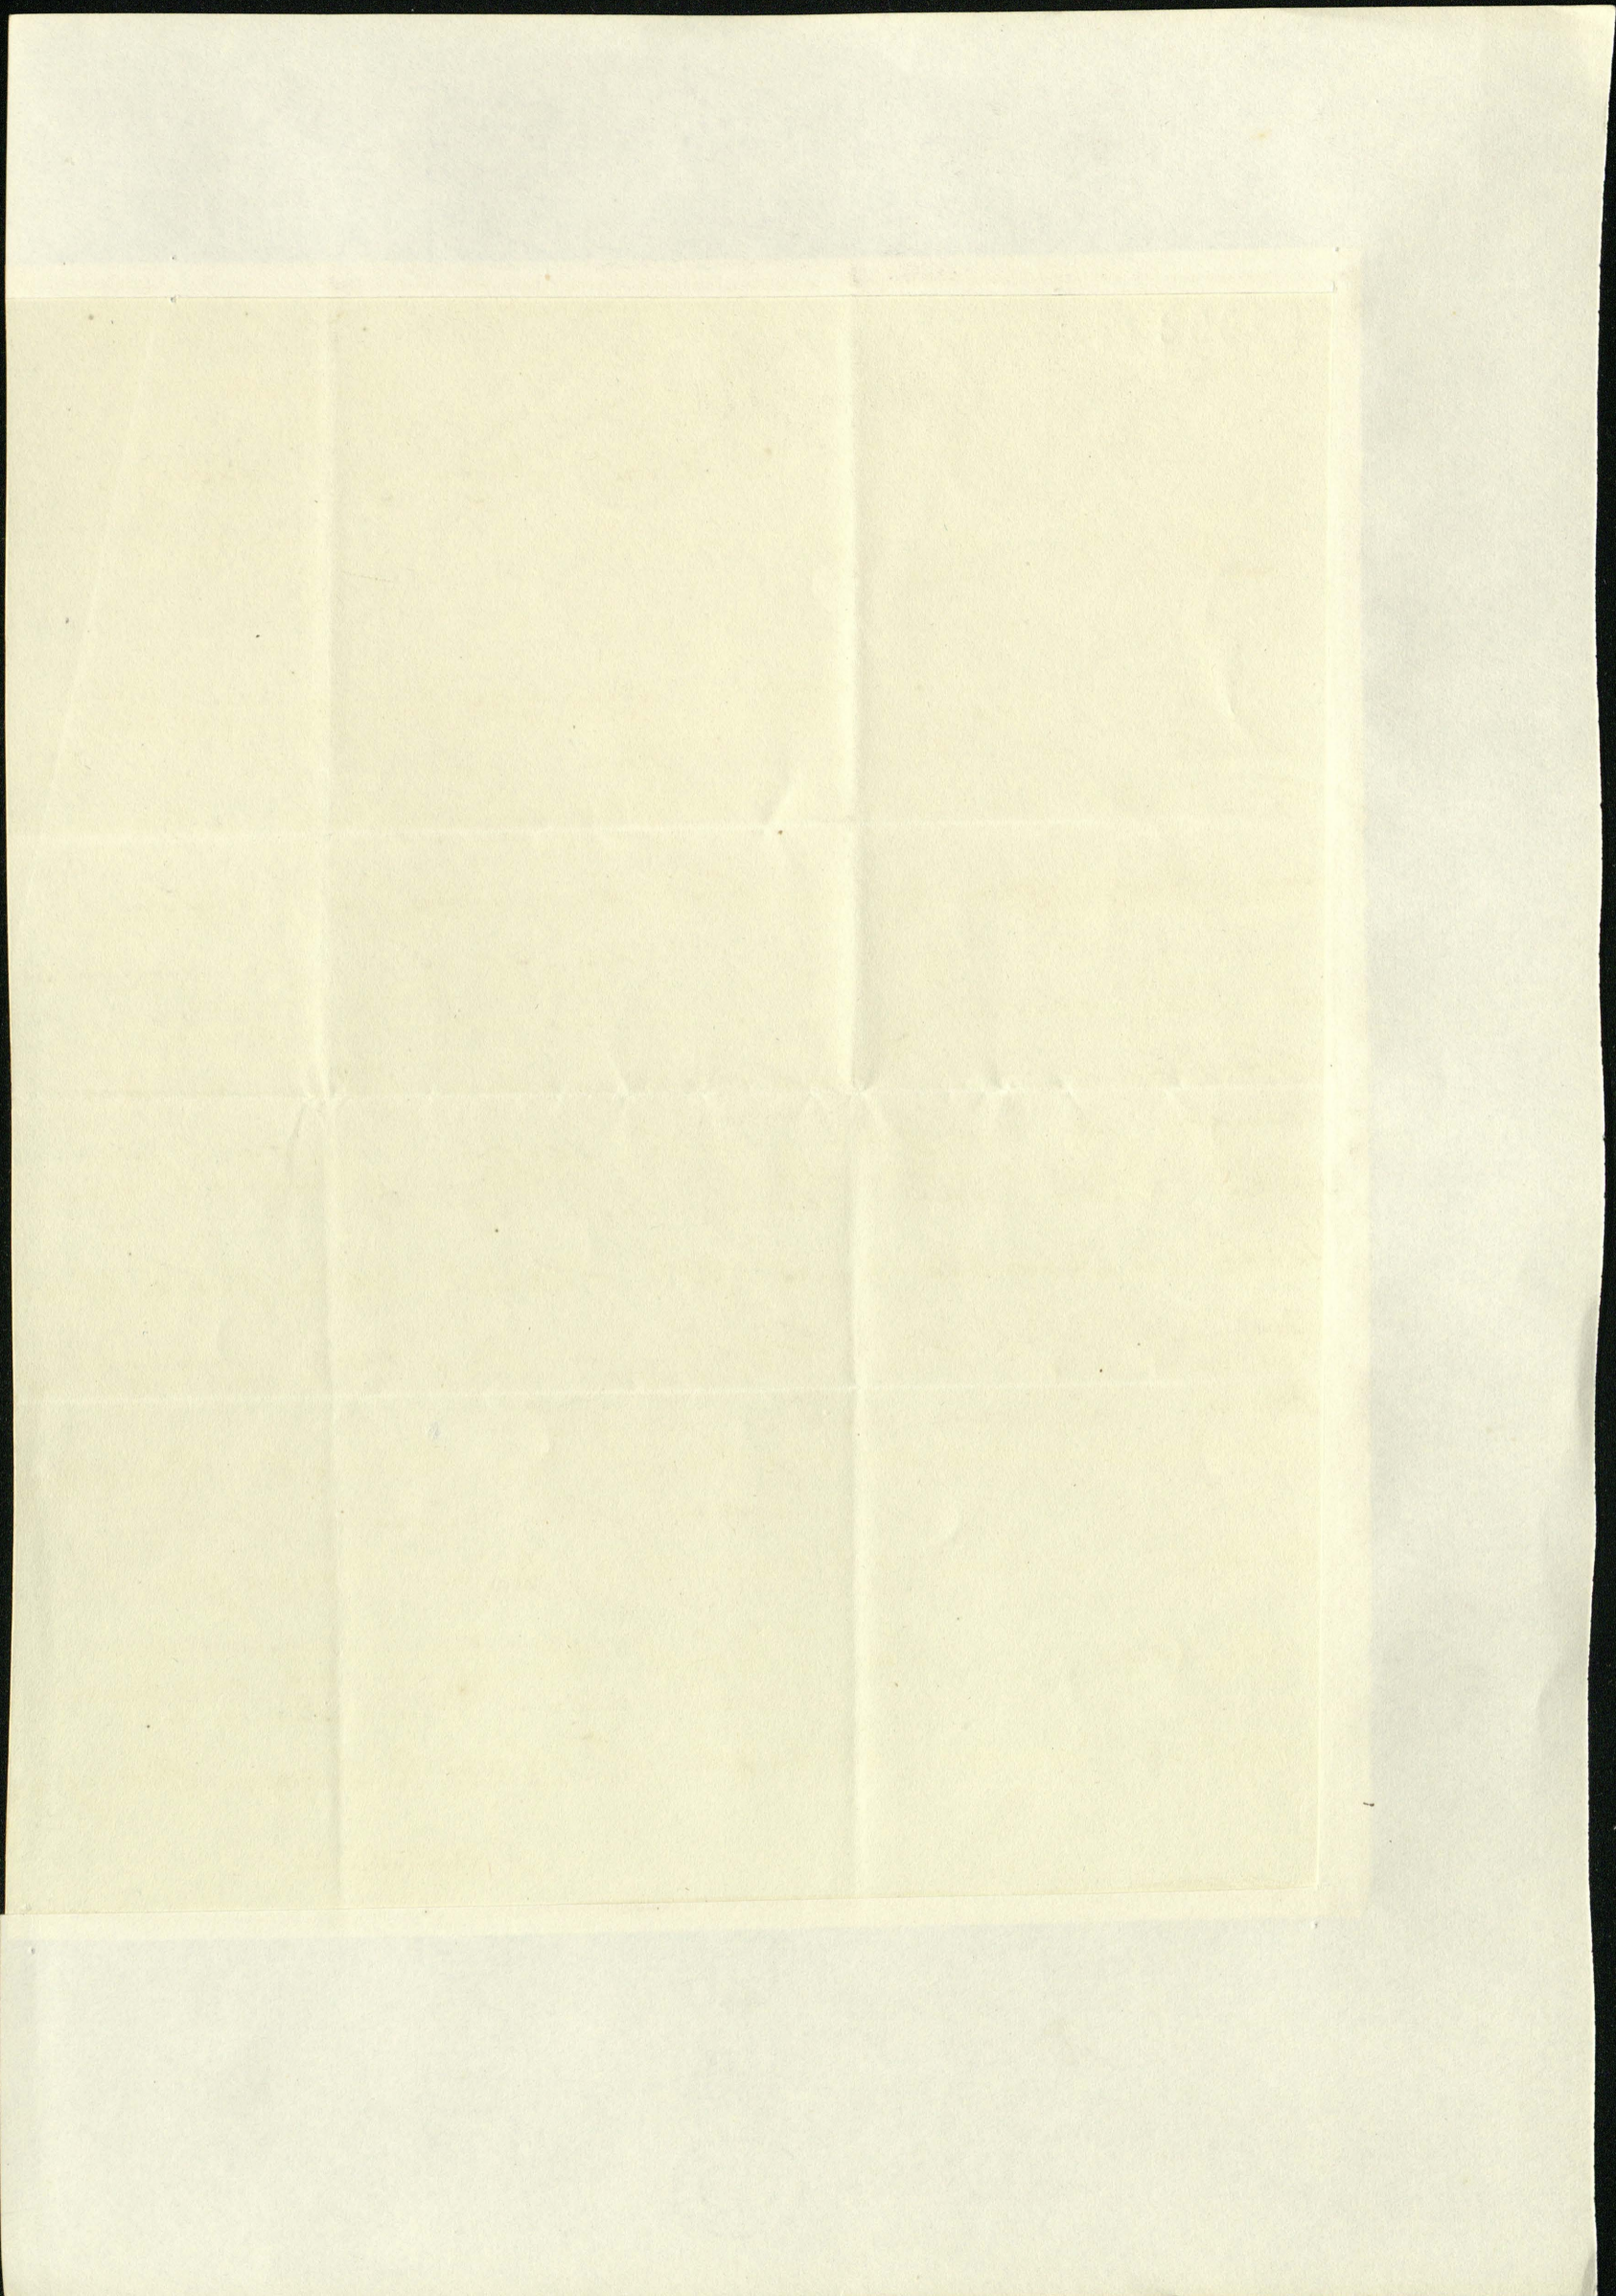

Sir

with much respect

Your very obedient

& humble servant

J. Keate

H. H. to Sir B. Bloomfield.

May 19 1823

A.A.No. 1068

22953 - 4

Private.

Dr Sir Bent.

Your Friend Sr W^m Knighton has approach'd me this morning upon the contents of your letter, which I desir'd to see. As your outfit has been expensive, I have directed him to pay into your Bankers £1500. But it never was my intention (& I am satisfied that you must have known that it was so) to continue your salary, as Private Secretary to me, when appointed to a Foreign Mission. In short there is no circum-stance under which I should have thought such a proceeding proper or admissible.

 Sir W^m represented to me that the Salary of your Mission would render your pension comp dormant; I therefore ordered him to acquaint you, that, should be paid from the Privy Purse, and I received your grateful thanks for it. Your representation respecting the Receiver Gen^l (I dare say unintentionally) but is not correct. When I gave you the fourteen thousand Pounds, it was a full compensation for that situation, which I must after all, and in justice to myself say you were in no way entitled to. When therefore I look back to the period when you were first introduced to me by poor Thomton, when on comp at the same reason to yo

 C. J.
 Man
 P.
 Stew
 it wa
 all fu

H. H. to Sir B. Bloomfield.

May 19 1823

A.A.No. 1068

22954 when I look to your situation and the date of your first becoming my Servant, and compare it to your situation and income at this moment, neither you, nor your Family, I feel, can have the smallest reason to complain, of my want of generosity to you.

With every good wish, I remain your sincere Friend

(Signed) G. R.

C. H.

May 19. 1823.

P.S. The Duke of Wellington & Lord Stewart were both acquainted, and felt it was highly proper to my Character, that all further salary from my Privy Purse to 1888

You should cease upon your obtaining the Mission. Since which I must in justice to myself recall your attention to my spontaneous donation in lieu of the dormant Pension as mentioned above.

Sr B. Bloomfield Esq. &c.

May 23 1822

A.H. No. 1069.

22955-6

23 May 1822

Sir

I scarcely feel yet to have recovered my senses, since that day, fatal to my Peace of Mind for ever, when I had the honor to receive Your Majesty's Letter.

It would ill become me to offer any explanation of the unhappy circumstances which

SNT

22888

229 which have drawn upon me Your Majesty's high Displeasure, Still I trust, that Your Majesty's Indulgence will permit me to declare, in the presence of my God, that to give offence to Your Majesty, or to state any circumstance, differing from that which I believed to be true.

True
w
V
L
J

Sr B. Bloomfield to H. H.

May 23 1823

A. H. No. 1069.

22956

True, were incompatible with my Nature —

I will not presume to trespass further upon Your Majesty, than to offer up my fervent Prayers to Heaven, for Your Majesty's long Life, Glory & Happiness —

Edinburgh 23rd May 1823

B. Bloomfield

55928

Lord Bloomfield
23rd May 1823