Lord Liverpool is most deeply sensible, of your Majesty's kindness, and most grateful to you, for your gracious and ready acquiescence in the recommendation he had the Honour of submitting to your Majesty, respecting Mr. Huskisson.

Lord Liverpool can assure your Majesty, that you may rely upon his considering your Majesty's Letter, as most strictly confidential.

When Lord Liverpool has next the Honour of waiting upon your Majesty, he hopes to be able to satisfy your Majesty, that he did not adopt the Message respecting Lord Melbourne, without the fullest Consideration of the Duke of Wellington's feelings, and of relieving your Majesty's mind from the Impression, that the Step which has been taken has in the Mean

Manner in which it has been conducted occurred any Pain or Distress to a Person so deservedly dear to Your Majesty, and for whom our deepest sympathies feel the most sincere Regard, and Affection.
