

London, May 1811

His Royal Highness
The Prince Regent

D^r (to Edw^d)^r Angles

S. s. d.

1

A very Elegant Royal Library Writing Table
made of fine Rosewood, banded with Sattin wood, supported on Brass pillars, fitted with draws, writing materials &c finished in the best manner

38..15..6

A handsome Leather Cover for Do

2..2..

40..17..6

4th //

Inspected

Benjamin Gutschanz

May 1811

Edward Angles
for a Library Table &c
£ 40. 17. 6

THE ORIGINAL MANUFACTORY

For the Patent BEDSTEADS, SOFA BEDS, CHAIR BEDS & New Invented DINING TABLES.

13 & 14 CATHERINE STREET. A BRICK-FRONT HOUSE

ARGLES,

UPHOLSTERER and

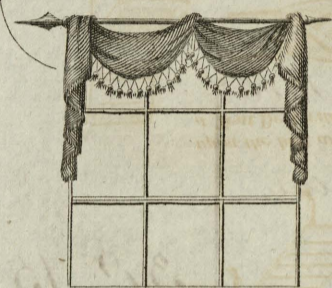

CABINET MAKER,

Designs executed in the Egyptian,

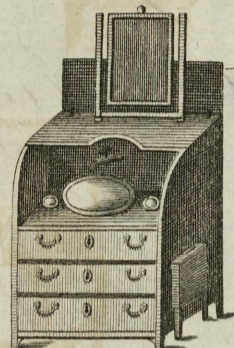

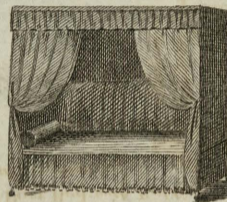

Etruscan, Greek & Chinese Manner.

TO THE KING AND QUEEN, THEIR ROYAL HIGHNESSES PRINCE, PRINCESSES and PRINCESS CHARLOTTE OF WALES, DUKE OF YORK AND PRINCESSES.

With every other Article in the Upholstery branch.

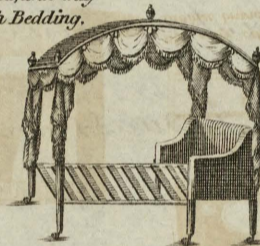

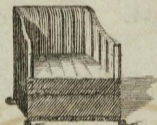

With every other Article in the Cabinet branch.

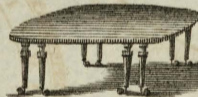

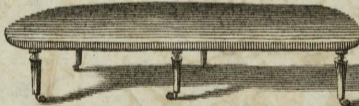

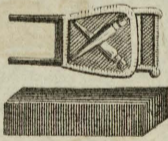

Sofa Beds,

upon the best and most approved principle, forming an elegant Sofa, and may be transformed with great ease into a complete Four Post Bed, with Bedding, Furniture &c. Fine Goose-feather Beds & Bedding of all descriptions.

Chair Beds,

upon the best and most approved principle, forming a handsome easy Chair, and is with great ease transformed into a Tent Bed, with Furniture and Bedding complete.

Portable Chairs;

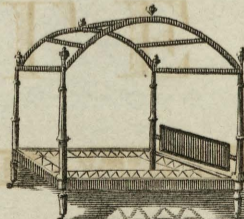

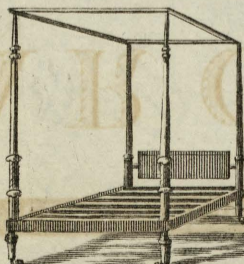

Plain and with Arms, of Mahogany, or elegantly Japanned, made to any pattern, a dozen of which, pack in the space of two common Chairs...with a variety of improv'd Camp and Navy articles.

Imperial Dining Tables,

forming an elegant Set, any shape or size, to Dine, from four to seventy Persons, or any greater number. The whole Table, shuts up into the space of a large Pembroke Table; the feet are so contriv'd as not to incommode the Company sitting, the whole will pack up in a box 16 Inches deep. T. BUTLER, had the Honor to make a Model of the above Table, for the inspection of HIS MAJESTY, who was most graciously pleas'd to express his entire approbation, on the ingenuity & utility of the same.
E. Argles, immediate Successor to T. Butler.

Escrutoires,

in Black Rose Wood, or Mahogany; fitted up in the most elegant stile.

PATENT BRASS-SCREW BEDSTEADS, IN EVERY RESPECT SUPERIOR TO ALL OTHERS.

These elegant Four-post and Tent Bedsteads, with Lath or Sacking bottom, made upon the best and most approved principle, are fixed up or taken down in a few minutes, without the use of tools, the Furniture, is made upon a new plan; it can be put up, or taken down, without tools, tacks, nails &c. &c. A very convenient and highly approved of Sofa Bed, contriv'd on purpose for Captains Cabins and Ladies or Gentlemen going to the East or West Indies; with every other Article, necessary for Voyages and use of Foreign Climates, Mosquito Net furniture, Bedding &c. The above Inventions and Improvements, with every other Article in the UPHOLSTERY and CABINET BRANCHES. Merchants and Captains, supplied for EXPORTATION, with every Article in the above Branches, on advantageous Terms. at N^o 13 and 14, Catherine Street, Strand. & positively for ready money.