Jan 23. 1815.

My dear Sir;

Will you with your brother Samuel Esq, do me the honour to lay me at the Count's Feet, and to solicit Comjua for me to buy A. R. his grand Nephew of a very superb Beryl, which I have brought with me from Brazil, and which, from its size and beauty is not a variety of a place in A. O. L. i. Collection?

May I venture to inquire whether there is any probability that I may soon have an opportunity of paying my Respectful Duty to the Prince? I have not seen any of my Family during nearly eight years; but I cannot think of going down to them, until I shall have had the honor of offering 25968 my dutiful regards to H. R. & D.

I have the honor to be,
with great regard,

My dear Sir,

If one of Your Royal Highness's most devoted & attached servants has not presumed for a very long period to address you, it has been from the want of a just sense of those weighty affairs which ever engage Your Royal Highness's time, & an unwillingness to abuse that condescension, which has ever marked Your Royal Highness's conduct towards me. —

He awaits himself however of the opportunity which the departure of his private Secretary, Major Dunning for England, <sup>affords</sup> humbly to offer for Yr Royal Displeasur; Gracious acceptance Two Curious Tankards, which are very old, & difficult to be procur'd, They are the only things that he has seen at Orona that he dare send (were there is such a profusion of every thing that is rare) as a small remembrance of one whom Yr Royal Displeasur has so signally mark'd by your Protection He feels they are entirely unworthy of the high honor to which they are destin'd, - But in considering the sentiment, which induces the Act, Charles.

I wait, humbly hopes. Wth Rth Dth will
