Le 3 Octobre 1825.

Vendu à Sa Majesté Britannique.

Le N° 4420 petite montre simple très plates, boîte d'or savonnette forme quatre baguettes et guilloché, à grains d'orge; corps de la boîte en argent, cadran d'argent recouvert d'un cristal de roche et indiquant l'heure et les minutes par deux petits cadrans concentriques: avance et retard; sur le cadran au dessous du pendan de la montre, lunette du cristal en or godronné en couleur et s'ouvrant à charnière pour remettre les aiguilles à l'heure. Echappement à cylindre de rubis et trous en rubis. Suspension classique au pivot du régulateur pour le garantir en cas de chute de la montre. chaîne et clef mécanique en or, longue chaîne platine à 3 anneaux très fine, cristal de roche de supplément, le tout renfermé dans un étui de maroquin rouge. La montre s'ouvre à pompe par le pendan pour découvrir le cadran, et lorsque l'on veut remettre les aiguilles à l'heure ou toucher à l'avance et retard, on ouvre la lunette du cristal. pour remettre les aiguilles à l'heure, il suffit de tourner celle des minutes à droite ou à gauche (selon qu'il est nécessaire) et celle des heures suit progressivement le mouvement qu'on imprime à celle des minutes au moyen du trou que porte celle-ci à sa base, dans lequel on introduit le carré qui est à la tête de la clef. on touche à l'avance et retard avec une pointe de bois ou d'acier, mais peu à la fois. le fond de derrière ne s'ouvre pas et pour remonter la montre, il suffit de tourner le fond sur lui-même avec la petite goussille qui est sur le bord de la boîte et que l'on éloigne du pendan, celui découvre le trou du remontoir dans lequel on introduit le carré long de la clef. on ramène ce fond à sa place en rapprochant la goussille.

Paris 3 Octobre 1825

Vendu à Sa Majesté Le Roi d'Angleterre par L. Breguet & Fils.

Le N^o. 3671. Régulateur double d'une nouvelle invention, dont les Balanciers sont aussi perfectionnés pour la dilatation, n'ayant que cinq branches au lieu de neuf: deux de ces branches sont en zinc et les autres en acier:

La Pendule présente deux Cadrans séparés, dont un donne l'heure du tems vrai et du Tems moyen, le mois et le quantième du mois; l'autre le Tems moyen seulement; tous deux ont des secondes d'un coup.

Cet ouvrage unique est ce que nous avons fait de plus parfait et de plus extraordinaire, tant pour la Composition que pour sa belle exécution, le tout est renfermé dans une Boîte d'Acajou très simple, entourée de glaces qui permettent de voir tout le travail.

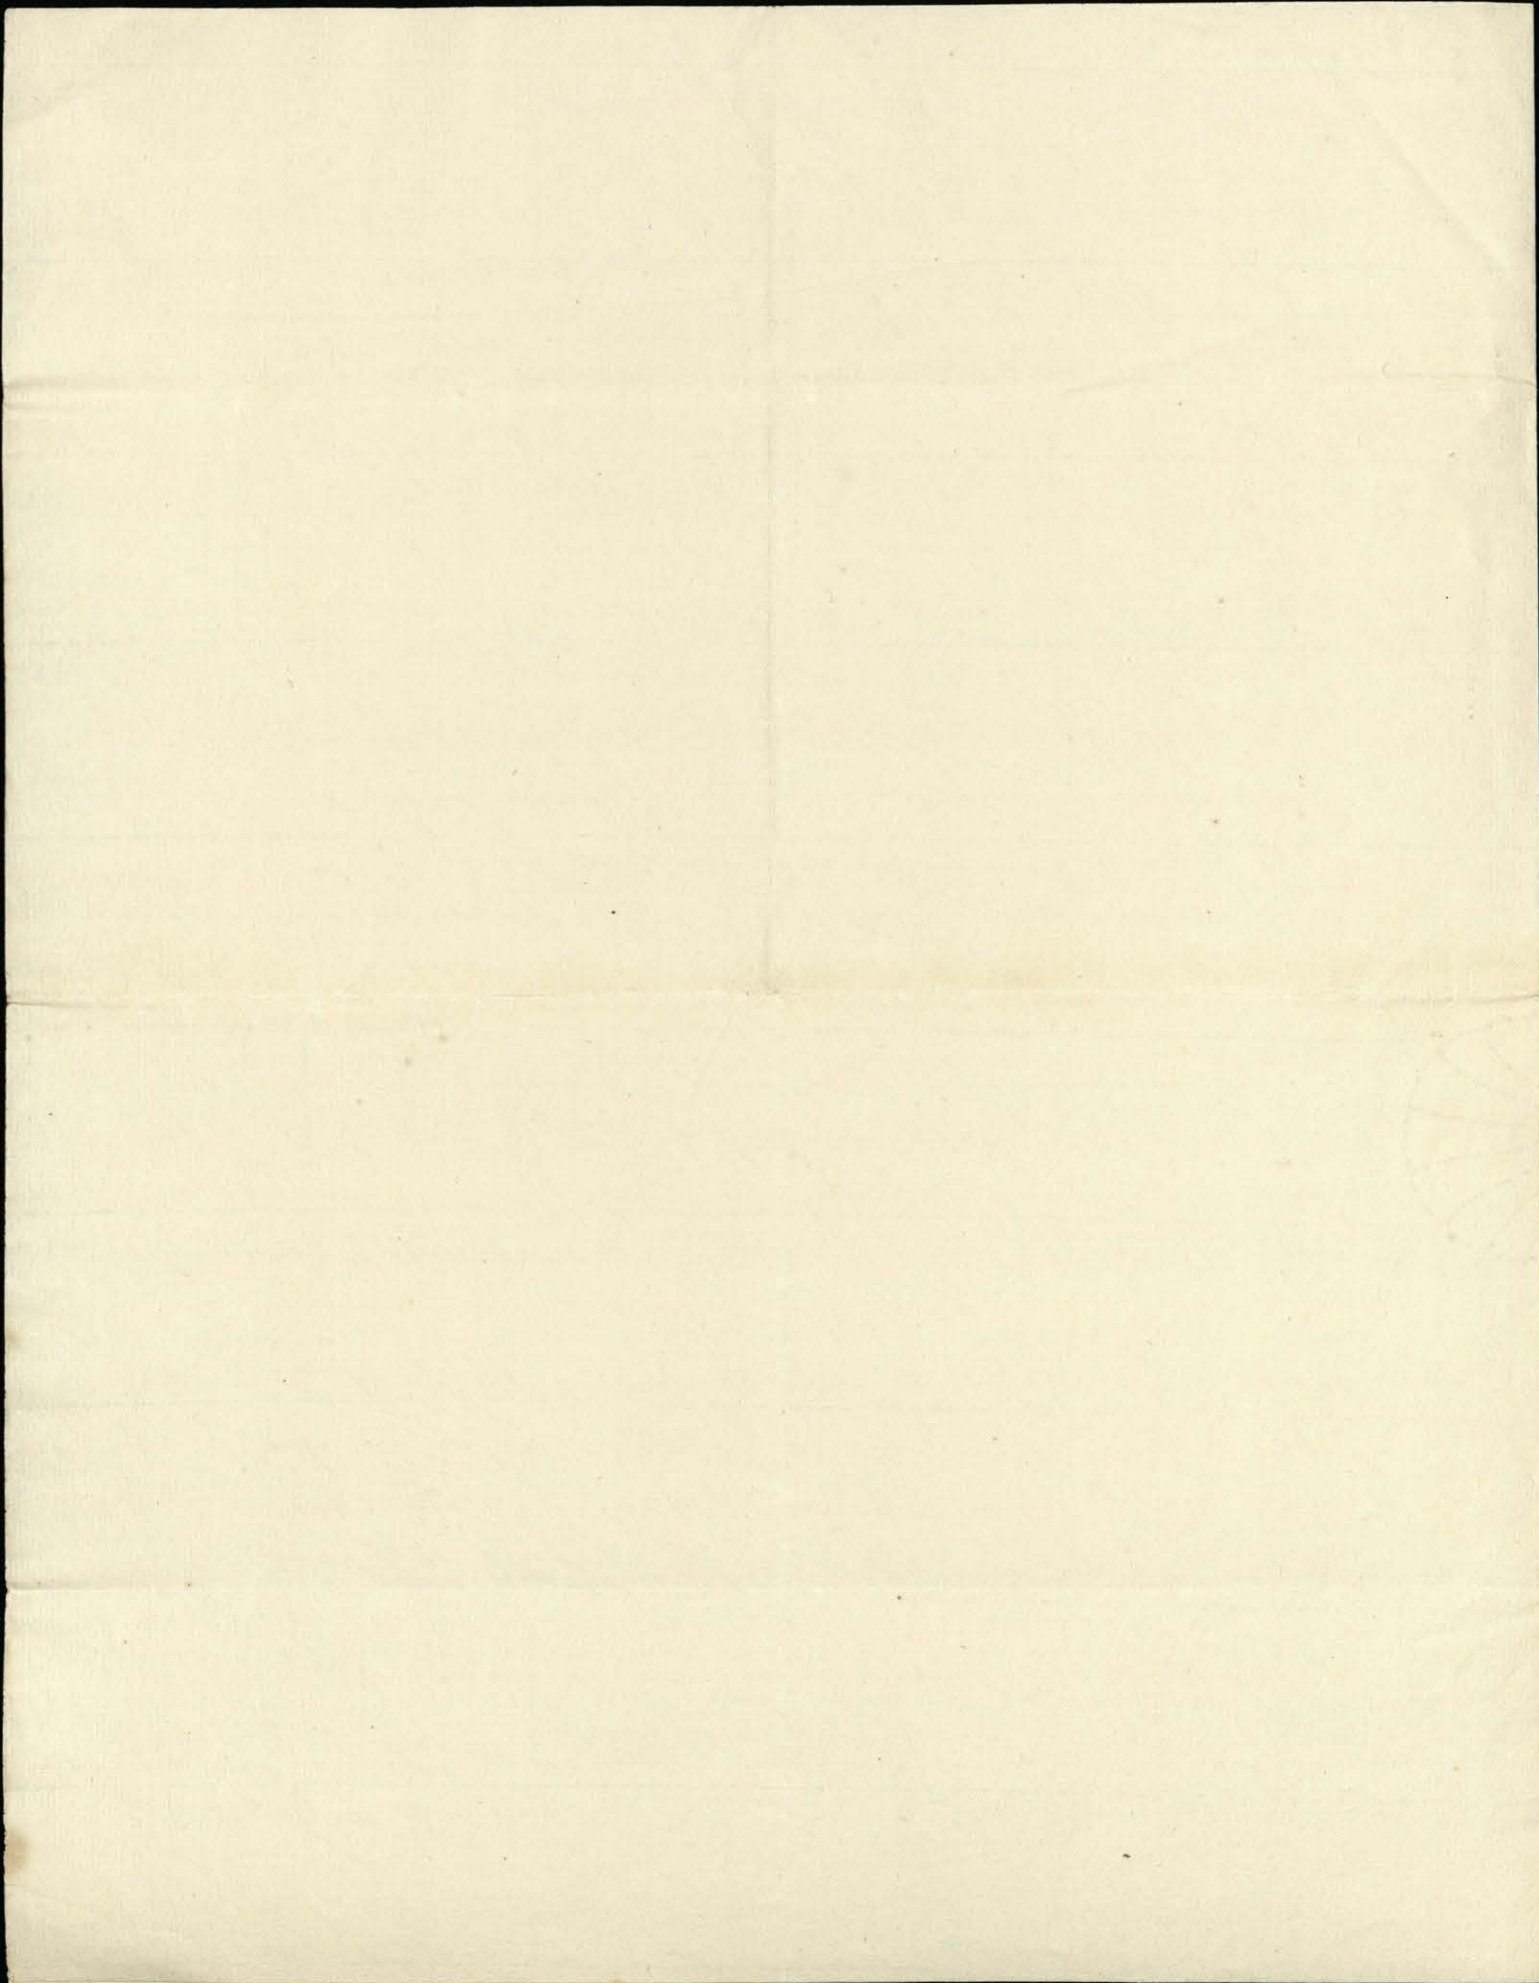

Une explication par Duplicate en a été déjà donnée à Sa Majesté lorsqu'elle nous a fait l'honneur de nous Commander cette Pièce.

Son prix est de mille livres Sterlingt $ 1,000⁰⁰ —
