24 April 1829

Dear Sir

Take care of the victor's hope, which is rather cool.
The Tankard may be made - but pray enquire of Mr Bridge if the ~~other~~ accusation be true! - I certainly remember to have seen very particular about the matter. I believe that I was sent abroad about the time of the King's Birth-day in August - however be particular about it, I make Bridg

 write a letter to you if it was ^{sent} written in time

the Sunkard His Majesty is graciously pleased to present them with annually as some delay took place last year, which

Sir

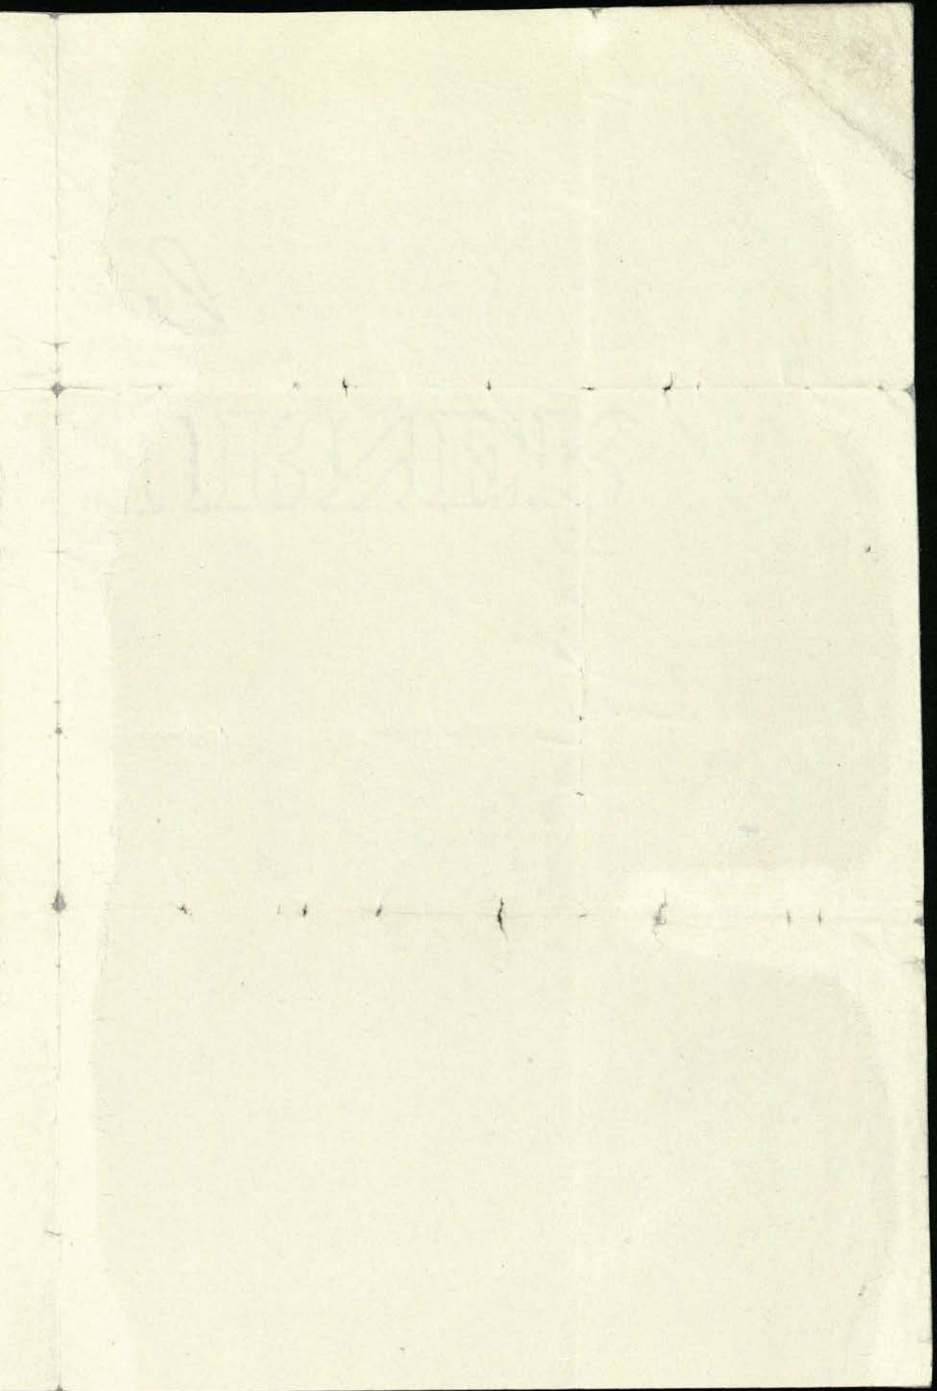

Lodge Hill 25 April 1819.

I beg leave to intrude upon you to say I have referred to the order Book, and find the gill Tankard given by His Majesty to the Yacht Club, was ordered on the 17th May, and was completed on the 30th July - and sent off according to order on the 6th of August, by Coach, from the Saracen, Head Snow Hill, Inward. I directed to The Earl of Belfast Club House, West Cowes, Isle of Wight.

I remain with sentiments of great respect - Sir Your very obliged and obedient servant,

Sir

In answer to yours of the 10th I beg to say I have but just arrived in Town or I should have furnished Dr Williams' letter before

Unfortunatly the Reverend Dr has broken and I will on Monday do myself the honor to lay before you the particulars

In the mean time I beg to inform you that the accident did not happen till the Silver Medals were completed and the Gold ones so far advanced as to enable me to send them to Dr Williams to go through the ceremony of Presentation and be finished when the New Die was done

I enclose to you Mr W's Letter acknowledging the Receipt of the Medals and I will on Monday next if convenient to you
