Strand 2 Feb. 1830

My dear Sir,

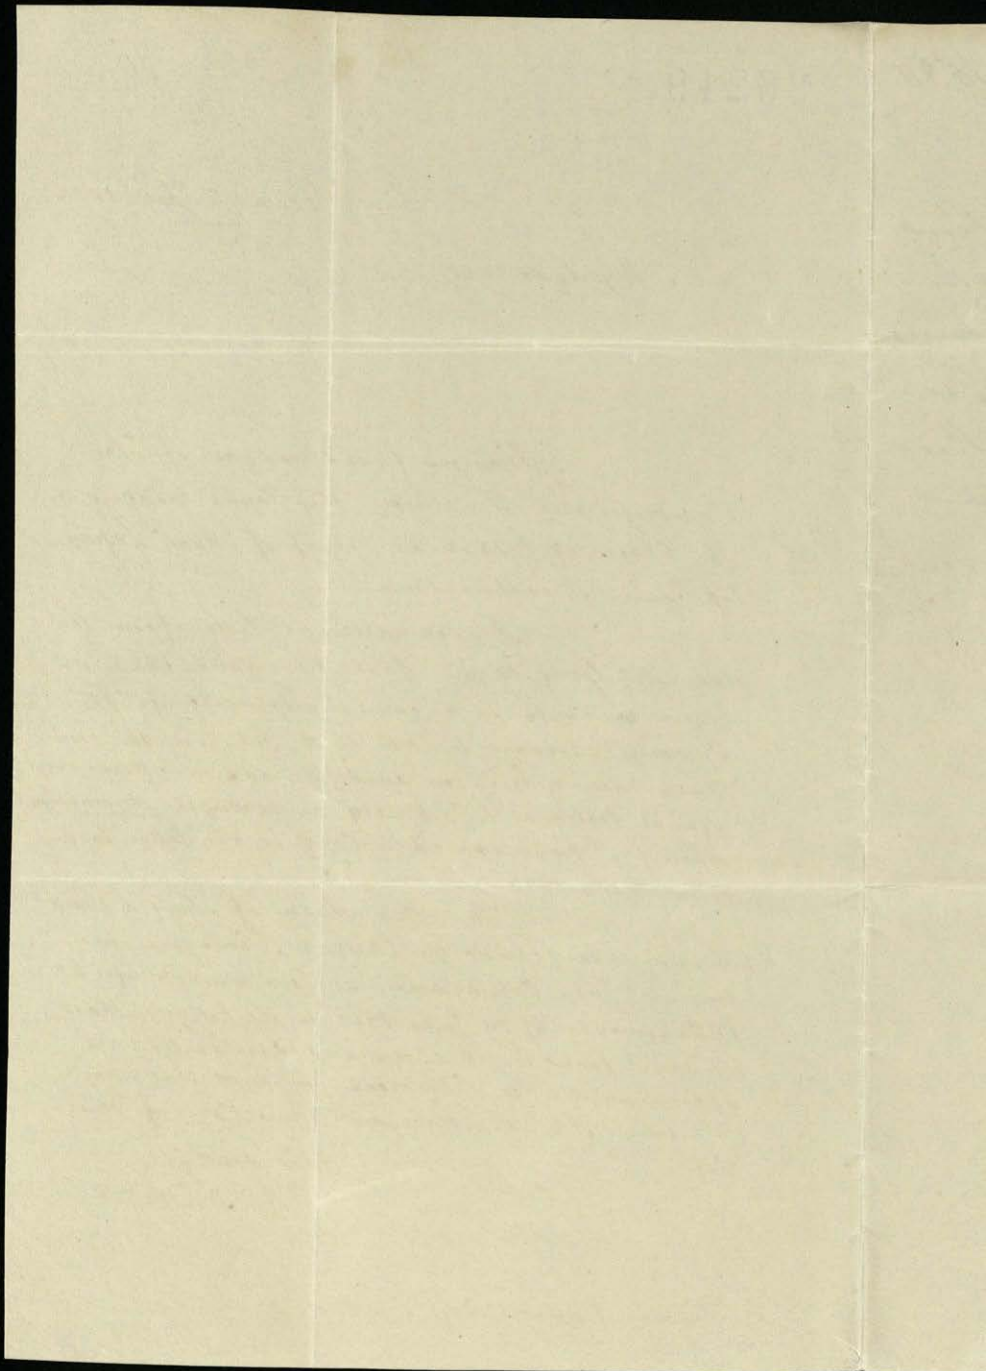

Having found in one of The Commissioners' Tin Boxes the Papers relating to the Claim of £2850 on behalf of Mons. Lepine of Paris, I inclose them

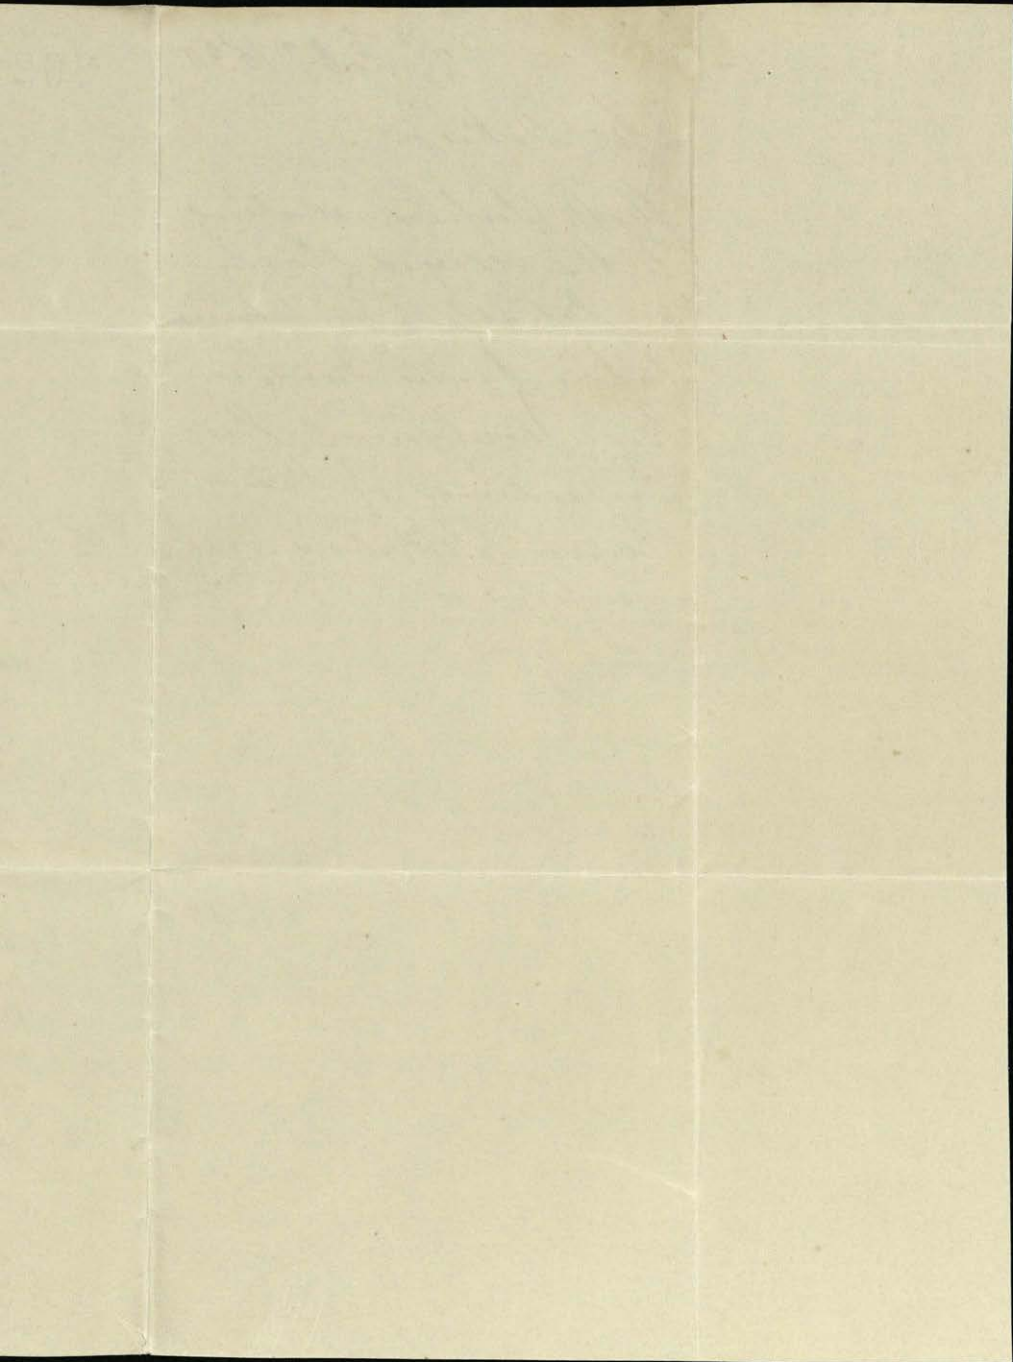

I also inclose a Letter from the late M. Gray to me of the 10. March 1820, which ~~is~~ contained a general Statement of The Commis^{rs}. Account to Feb. 1820, wherein the two Claims are noticed as doubtful, and in a previous general Statement to Feb. 1819 he makes the observation whereof I have annexed a Copy to his Letter to me of 10 March 1820.

The other Claim of about £1200 (making with Lepine's the £4050) I imagine was from M. John Collingwoods, as from a Note of M^r Collingwoods of 19 June 1813 to the late M^r Hast, which I found in the Box, and also inclose, it appears to relate to a Demand for about that Sum. I believe I need not request Your Care of these Papers.

Yours truly
And: Dickie

Clocks supplied by a person of the name of Levine, I applied to Mr. Dickie, by Sir William Knighton's Care, in order to ascertain whether any thing of the kind appeared amongst the Accounts of the Prince

Sir William having desired me to communicate the result to You, I now send You

You the enclosed papers and Memoranda, on the subject, by which you will perceive that whenever this Claim has been urged, it has been considered as more than doubtful.

With these papers, furnished by Mr. Dickie, I also enclose his letter to me of this day's date, in which you will see his caution in dealing with them.

It is evident that the two Claims

Claims, revived so near to each other (the present one and that of Mr. John Gollingwood), are both mentioned in Mr.
Gray's Letter to Mr. Dickie of 19.
March 1820, as doubtful, and seem to have been named only, that nothing might be kept back in furnishing the Statement, ^{which was} enclosed in that letter. Believe me,

my dear Sir,
with sincere respect,

Memorandum - 9. Feb. 1830 -

Mr. Herbert Lloyd called, by Appointment
 this Day, at Mr. Harrison's, New Spring Garden Terrace, and was informed by Mr. Harrison, in the presence of J^{rs}. James Danvers, that the Claim recently made in respect of Two Clocks Stated to have been supplied to His Majesty, when Prince of Wales, by M. Lepine Clock-Maker of Paris, had been before made when the Prince of Wales's Affairs were in the hands of Commissioners appointed to settle B. R. H's Debts, - and that those Commissioners having rejected the Claim, it was impossible to entertain it at this period - Upon which Mr.
 Herbert Lloyd said, this explanation was quite sufficient to satisfy him.

65. Charlotte Street

Sir,

Portland Place

It is with feelings of the greatest diffidence that I lay before you the accompanying correspondence, which arose from circumstances I have an equal delicacy in alluding to.

It was proposed on H. P. H. the Duke of Clarence taking office as Lord High Admiral, that a commemorative medal should be struck, - it was necessary that some person should undertake the management, which duty I accepted.

I wrote in consequence the note No. 1. to the Marquis of Conyngham, and altho' by Mr Brent's reply, I could not ascertain what was His Majesty's gracious pleasure, I directed two medals of gold & corresponding cases, valued 100 guineas, to be prepared. The one H. P. H. the Duke of Clarence, paid fifty guineas for and presented to Greenwich. The other, I had the honor of sending with note N^o 2 to the Marquis of Conyngham, for His Majesty's approval and gracious acceptance and in consequence received the annexed gratifying reply from Windsor. The subscribers were then numerous, and I could hardly keep the Artists' list, to meet the impatience of demand, but the unexpected retirement of H. P. Highness from office threw the greatest damp on the transaction, and I then found myself in a situation of difficulty, and responsibility, foreign to my habits, and which I could not foresee. That I stood between the public and the artists, and that while the latter called on me to fill my engagements, and come down on me for large masses of money, I had to gather it in fulfilment from many hundred persons, who, with few exceptions, no longer felt any interest in the matter, that while the subscribers who have paid, and not received the medal, unimpaired of the great, or any expense incurred, are clamorous for a completion of the work, those who have not paid, almost wholly decline coming for me. These circumstances, Tenness Sir, and having a heavy mass of expenses and debts to artists to meet, compelled me to do the mortification to my feelings of making the application I did to you this morning, and which nothing but being so peculiarly placed could have obliged me to. Should on consideration you be of opinion then is any thing offensive in it or derogatory to myself, I must again beg to recall it, if on the contrary Messrs Cookburn & Co. bankers Whitehall, are the treasurers to the subscription, to whom, should it be allowed, you will be pleased to direct the amount, fifty guineas, may be paid.

With many apologies for troubling you with a letter of such detail, but which I thought not unnecessary, to enable you to judge, and place the circumstances and application in a fair light before you.

I have the honor to be

Sir,
your most obedient and very humble servant,

J. B. Kelly
Sir William Knight

His Majesty's M...

Wormean

10 July 1833.

Private,

My Dear Sir

I intended to have come up to Town, to day, for the purpose of attending at Kensington Palace, with the medals - but I do not feel quite well - & it is altogether so inconvenient to me, ~~altogether~~ that I have determined to put it aside; under these circumstances, I have written to the Duke of Sussex & on the other side is the copy of my note to M. H. Esq - I hope therefore it will be convenient to you to accompany M^r. Lyon to Kensington, on Thursday the 11th, that is the day you receive this. - Send in your names & deliver the medals - taking care to open the cases & to show that they are all right - There will be no occasion to take a receipt ~~on this occasion~~ from His Royal Highness - but you must have two from M^r. Lyon, on the payment of this money - that is one, for each of the Crafts - that he will receive. Take a check if you

* P.D. had previously made out two Receipts for the two sums to avoid the additional Stamp, but as the Receipt specified both payments, he concluded that the end would be answered just the same.

Please I put down the ^{word} to the Disbursements of the Exchequer -

I have taken every precaution, in paying the utmost respect & attention to his Royal Highness which I hope will succeed.

Ever your most sincere & every faithful friend

W^m.

Sir William Knighton presenting his Duty to Your Royal Highness, begs to state, that having this Day had a Communication from M^r Lyon that the Gold & Silver Medals are now completed, he has, by this Letter, desired M^r that Gentlemen, with M^r Carrers, to be in attendance at Kensington Palace, to morrow Thursday, at half past twelve; for the purpose (with Your Royal Highness's permission) of submitting the same Medals to Your Royal Highness.

Sir William Knighton's absence from Town, determined him not to delay, for a Day, the delivery of the Medals, & hence it is that he is deprived the Honor & Satisfaction of personally paying his Duty to Your Royal Highness on this occasion.

London 10 July
 1833

Be so good as to put this with M^r Lyon's Receipts - as it finishes, I hope, the affair.
