Kind Sir,

Upon enquiry I find the Start-Brig is not yet arrived, but is daily expected here. You may depend on receiving a line from me as soon as she does arrive. I have finished my oil sketch for the picture, which I am to paint for the medal; but I would be much obliged to you Sir, if you would have the goodness to inform me when the picture must be delivered, and where it must be sent. I remain your most respectful and obliged H. St. Philji Rogers.

Dear Sir,

Plymouth Novt 12th 1807

I have often thought of you during these severe tempests of many days past. I have hoped that your health would not suffer from the inclemency of Dartmoor. I have on the other side caused Nelson's account to be transcribed & shall feel myself obliged by your directions as to the mode of drawing for the amount. Postage bill is not included.

I suppose you have not heard from Ireland. With the best wishes for your health and prosperity & with compliments to your brother, I have the honour to remain,

Dear Sir,

Your most sincere friend & obedient humbly yr.

Dear Sir

I have enclosed an auto.
of a Portrait of His Royal Highness
The Prince of Wales painted some time ago by His Royal Highness's command for The Duke of Kent and was intended to be sent to His Royal Highness at Gibraltar, but is now to accompany some other Pictures of the Royal Family at his Villa at Castle Hill. His Royal Highness
The Prince did propose to sit to me for a trifling alteration of the Hair and when he has time and will honor me with his commands I shall be ever devoted to them. —

I have therefore taken the liberty of sending you the account, as the Picture is delivered, subject to His Royal Highness's pleasure respecting the alterations —

I remain, Dr^r Sir, with great regard and esteem —

Y^r most Obed^r Serv^t.
