Collection des papiers de la Reine

Messieurs D^s Fournier

Wrote 30 July 1816 to Sir W. Beecher, recommending him to send a separate Bill to Mr. Salthouse of the Regency of the College Picture - also a separate Bill to me of Mr. Perrival's Portrait, near where the Picture is deposited.

Sir

I have not received any Portrait Painted by Sir William Beecher of the Late Mr Perrival - but I have a faint Idea of having seen such a Portrait at Carlton House & sent there for The Regents inspection, and I think returned to Sir William - in respect to the Picture which has been repaired at Hampton Court - I of course know nothing - except that a Bill passed through my hand into the Lord Chamberlains Office - made out by Mr Pising Feb^y 21st 1012 and was there for restoring A Large Picture of His Majesty Reviewing 10th Light Dragoons Painted by Sir W. Beecher £36. 15. - Lining the above & adding 4 Inches of New Canvas - 15. 15. - £52. 10. -

whether the above Picture is the one alluded to in Sir William Beecher's account I cannot take upon myself to say, but which may easily be ascertained by an application to Sir William, which perhaps you will think it necessary to do
