to Paris

2856

Lord North has the honour of informing his Majesty that the House have agreed to the report of the Committee upon the Extraordinaries of the Army There have been two divisions in the course of the day, the first upon the motion for printing the House Tax Bill

Sept 4th

Nov. 7th

The second upon an amendment proposed by Mr Burke the Vote of the Extraordinaries

Aug. 21
Nov. 56

Mr Pultney is going again to Paris having received a warning not to agree to anything about Canada Nova Scotia or the Floridas. If Franklin is not sincere (and Lord North has no opinion of his sincerity) he will not write such a letter as that of which Lord North has the honour of sending a draft to his Majesty.
