My dear Sir

Pray excuse for troubling you with the annexed and ^{in explanation of} tho'ts mentioned that his Majesty has done us the honor to read the Mercury for many years - This agent here had always paid it most punctually - but that agent died, and a Mr Wille, who I understand has become merchant was appointed in his stead - Since then we have never been able to procure pay^t

I do not wish to lose my subscribers, but as I cannot afford to send gratis - Would you could find me in a way of getting payment Perhaps you may be able to learn this through some of your friends at the west end of the town - Remember me kindly to your father & family - I remain me sincerely Yours
Thomas Mear
