

St James's
July 17 1822

Dear Sir

I have the honor to return you the Receipts of the several Tradesmen, as well as those for the Salaries, with my best thanks for your kind assistance & punctuality.

I take this opportunity of mentioning that His Majesty has been pleased to command the printing of the second Volume of the Catalogue to be proceeded with without delay; the expence of which will not, I am assured, exceed £400., as a great part of the Paper has been already paid for.

I have the Honor to be Dear Sir your most grateful & obedient servant

Fred. Aug. Barnard

Robert Gray Esqr
