

Royal Library
Buckingham House
Dec. 12 - 1822.

Dear Sir

In answer to your Note of the 10.th instant communicating to me His Majesty's desire of learning what Duplicates of works are now contained in the Royal Library at Buckingham House; I have the honor to send you enclosed, a List of all that are there at present; & I beg leave to add, for His Majesty's information, that the reason there are so few, is, that in the year 1813, all <sup>the</sup> Duplicate Books that had been accumulating from various circumstances for several years, were at that time disposed of to Mr. Nicol Book-seller to His late Majesty, & the amount expended upon upon other publications. I beg leave to add, that there is also a choice selection of Books, forming a compleat Library, which was removed from Windsor Great Lodge & few books of common use, which were taken from Weymouth, both now at the Royal Palace Buckingham House.

Of the Windsor Library there is a perfect & compleat Catalogue made & digested by myself.

I have the honor to be,
Sir, &c &c

J. A. Barnard
