I presume to add, that I was His Majesty's pleasure, to name in the Commissions of the Officers, The Association, The Loyal Newbury Association, Officers and private Volunteers, being solely my Servants, and their number being, Seven hundred and fifty two Men

It being my Duty, as it will ever be the Ambition of my Life to obey the commands of His Royal Highness upon every Occasion whatever; I shall endeavour that the Colours may be deliver'd to the Loyal

Newborough's Association, in a manner that may merit perhaps the Approbation of His Royal Highness.

I have the honor to be
