Dear Sir, As the letter I have received from You plainly shews that at all events You expect to be released from your situation at the close of this Session, and that You cannot extricate Yourself for that small period if the Law Arrangement you Yourself had proposed to me takes place; I think it upon the whole best to make no arrangement this year, and therefore You are dispensed from taking any steps concerning the present Attorney and Solicitor Generals, or any Successors to them, which I hope will enable You to spend the next Week quietly at Bath, that You may recreat Your mind to carry on the business in the House of Commons for the remainder of this Session

Thurs April 18. 1778.
