Sir

I most respectfully beg leave to inform you that I have laid your note of this morning with the inclosed Bill before His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, who was graciously pleased to desire me to inform you that the Bill may be paid. His Royal Highness having ordered the new Uniform in the Bill himself, and intended them as a Present to His Royal Highness the Duke of Clarence

I am Sir with respectful duty your most obed^t. Humble Serv^t

G. O. Troup.

P.S. Sir from the above correct Statement, I humbly perceive it is unnecessary for me to trouble the Right Honorable Colonel McMahon, any farther on this business, farther than with my most humble duty, and obedience to his commands.

I must express my sincere regret that I have not been able to attend the exhibition of the Royal Academy of Arts, which I have had great pleasure in viewing, and which I have had the opportunity of seeing in the most interesting manner. I have had the pleasure of seeing the most interesting collection of works of art, and I have had the opportunity of seeing the most interesting collection of works of art, and I have had the opportunity of seeing the most interesting collection of works of art.

Yours very truly
 J. M. W. Turner

It is very true that the above account, although I have had the opportunity of seeing the most interesting collection of works of art, and I have had the opportunity of seeing the most interesting collection of works of art, and I have had the opportunity of seeing the most interesting collection of works of art.

Faversham, Brighton 6 Feb^r: 1818

Sir

I most respectfully beg leave to inclose you Mr. Richardson's Receipt signed for the draft which I received from you this morning, ^{and} which I paid him with accordingly —

I am sorry that I cannot give you Mr. Holbeck's address, correctly at this moment my books being in town, and as we shall all be in town on Sunday, I hope that will be in time, for that purpose, when I shall desire him to wait upon you sir at the Duke of Cornwall

I avail myself of this opportunity sir to inform you of the Prince Regent's perfect good health, as well as are all the visitors and inmates in the Pavilion

I am Sir with every respect, your most obed^t humble Servant Geo Toop.

Sir the pair of Cavalry Standards, or Colours, were ordered by the Prince Regent early in 1816, for the Austrian Hussar Regiment, which the Emperor of Austria gave to the Prince Regent, and appointed H. H. Colonel of the same and

and the Standards, after very many alterations and changes suggested by His Majesty as well as by the Herald office, were (I think) picked up and forwarded to the Regiment in Germany; and for any further particulars, I have no doubt but Sir B. Bloomfield can inform you Sir - - - - -
