Sir William

London 36 Boulevard

13 August 1829

I beg most respectfully to address you, respecting my account, relative to the Navy Purse, and the Band. I should be exceedingly sorry, for you to think me troublesome; and hope I shall not give you offence, in observing, that my account for the Band, principally executed in March 1828; was done by contract, at as low a Ready Money Price, as the articles of which they are made, could possibly admit; and from the kindness I have always experienced, I am led to hope, it will meet with your early, and kind consideration. Sir Andrew Barnard, is I believe fully aware, of the correctness of my statement.

— Hoping therefore, you will excuse my intruding on your valuable time, which I am aware, is fully occupied, and flattering myself I shall be honoured with your answer; I remain most respectfully,
 Sir William, Your most Obedient^{ly} Servant,
 John Meyer

Sir

Some time ago when I had the honour of seeing you at the Royal Lodge you were so good to say that the bill for the cloathing of His Majesty's Band should shortly be paid, Having lately met with a serious disappointment in money matters I take the liberty humbly to state, the more it convenient, the payment at this present time would render me a most essential service, having made the cloathing by a contract the profit on them is very small, which when taken into consideration I hope will plead my excuse for making this application -

I hope you will grant my request I am

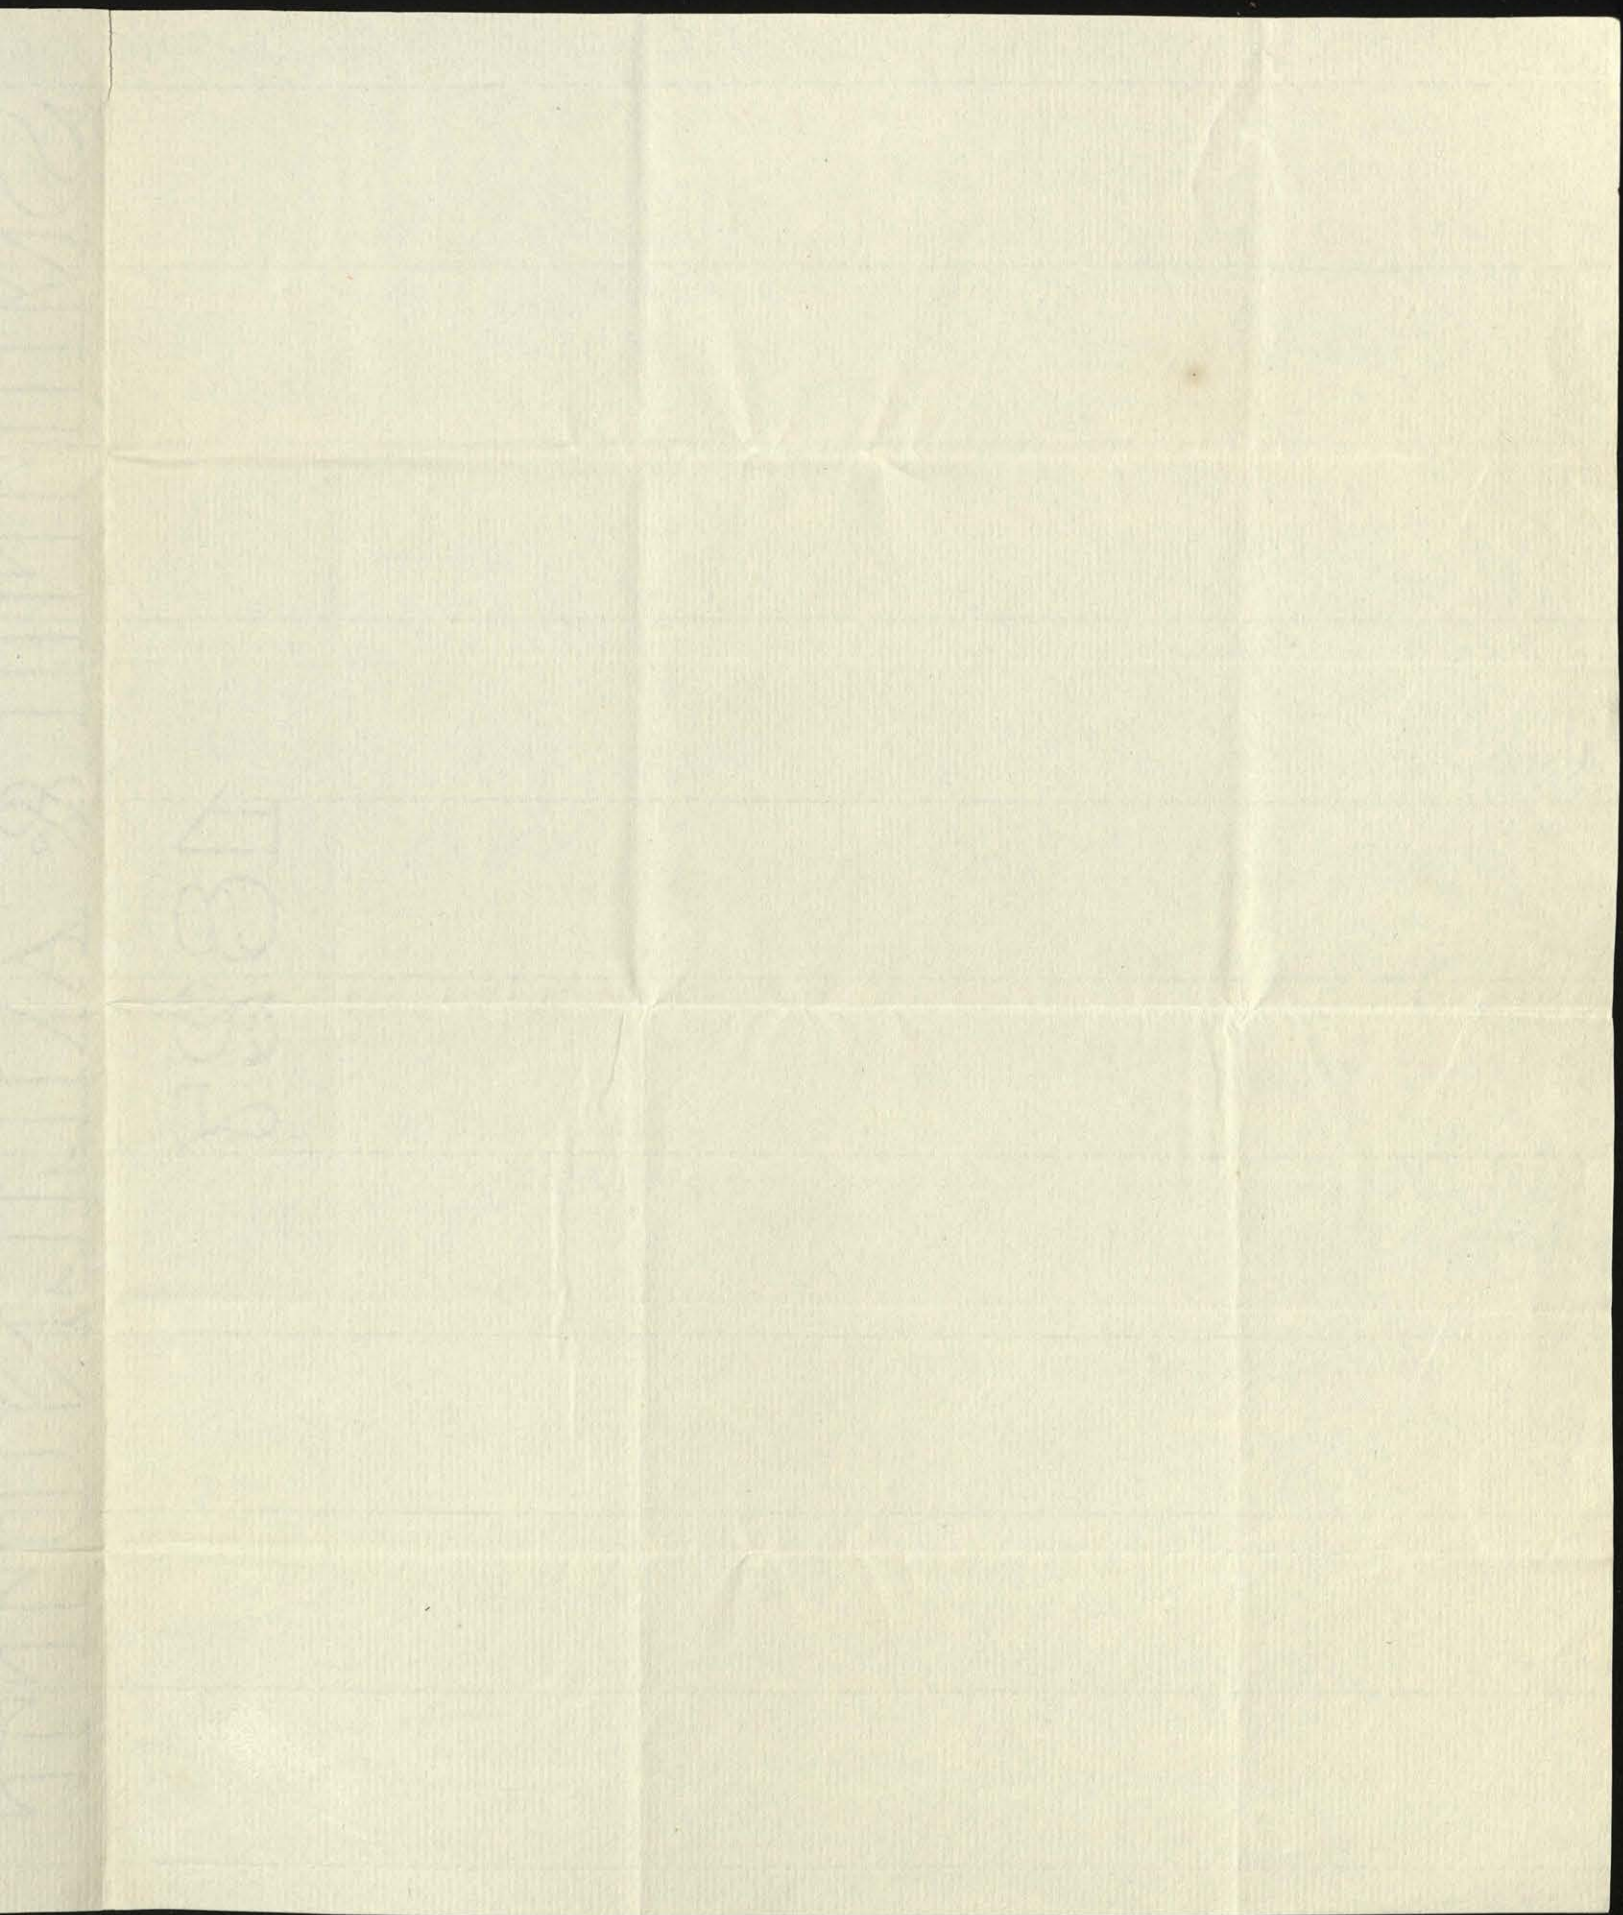

Sir

Your Most Obed^t & humble servant

John Meyer

To the Right Hon^{ble}

Sir W. Knighton
