Sir

At the request of the Trustees & Executors of the late Mr Fox, his Widow Mrs Fox takes the liberty of waiting upon you, to beg the favor of presenting to you the amount that is now subsisting between His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, <sup>for them</sup> for their admissions to the Brighton Theatre—

The amount altogether is £63. 4. 0, & as the affairs of Mr. Fox require a speedy adjustment, the Trustees solicit your good offices towards liquidating this amount, & the more especially as such a sum would now be most convenient to Mrs Fox in her present exigencies — takes the liberty of stating his annual claim upon His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, for Fees of Honor due to the Society of Free Masons - The sum now due is 30 guineas, and Mr. Gray will recollect that in settling the last years account he paid only 30 pounds instead of 30 g<sup>ns</sup>, which mistake he desired might be rectified in the next claim he therefore begs to add the 30 Shillings to his present claim, which will make the total amount £33
