

H. N. to Genl. North

July 14 1778

3037

Lord North, The intelligence from Bancroft may not be entirely false though it is certainly greatly exaggerated, for to intimidate has ever been one of his chief aims; M^r. Almodovar has expressed a wish to appear as soon as he can a little recovered from the fatigue of his journey, Friday is therefore fixed for his audience.
