

Mill of Letnook, April 17th 1824.

Dear Sir

I rec^d. your letter on the 6th of Apr^l and lost no time in looking out for a steady Man to go to Braemar, I gave him a letter to the Session Clerg, authorising him to pay him for his trouble, but he told the bearer he would take nothing, as I had stated in my letter to him that as it was the Kings Bountie I had asked nothing for my troubles, I sent monie with the bearer to pay all the Old Mans Debts, but you will see by the inclosed their was nothing dem^d. I likewise gave the bearer your letter to show them our authority, The Minister, and Mr. Roy was both asked if they heard of any thing dem^d by the Old Man, but they said they knew of nothing, his son William had paid all, The Bearer did not see William, but they told him he was in the place, and the people around said they thought he was something out of pocket, but the carrying off his Father was all of his own Carving, and he has none to blame but himself, I went to Annes old lodging yesterday and read your letter to her, and the letter from Braemar, which brought her £5-19 sterl^{rs} this shee said would need to be given to Williams. as the neighbours thought he was something out of pocket, it most bee allow ed he has a right to the halfe of the £10 that was reserved till Death, but he has no claim for more, and I shall pay the £5 when cal led for, — In about two weeks shee purposes going to Brechin to get her Mournings, and other comfortable clothes, if the weather ee be warme, it has been verrey storme here since the first of March, When shee comes down, I shall take her to the first shop in Brechin, and ^{see} her get value for her monie, and see every thing paid, — Before wee proceed to build her Cottage, shee must get a securitee from Mr. Maul that none shall have it in their power to remove her during her life, this must bee got before any thing bee done.

I shall Consult our Factor when I pay my Rent, and see if hee will promise wood, for a roof and doors, which I thinke he will grant.

Dear Sir,

Having been in the country for a few days, I did not receive your letter of the 25th instant till last Night.

The Sum Sir William Knighton was good enough to give Mrs. Wharton, was £100. to enable her to remove from her Apartments at Buckingham House, which, from her distressed Situation, she stood in great need of.

Sir

I fear my note to Sir Wm. Knighton has been misunderstood, having only requested that the half year's allowance of fifty pounds to my ^{Sister} daughter which was due on the 5th of April might be paid, with the further indulgence that in future I might be allowed to receive it quarterly; at the same time I cannot help expressing my disappointment at finding that the £50 I received in January for my house &c. was not (like the other) a half yearly payment, which I was led to imagine was the case,

You must be aware Sir, that fifty pounds a year, fall very far short in defraying the expense of house rent, taxes, coals, candles &c. all which I lost in quitting Buckingham House; I was in hopes that Sir W. Knighton would have taken that into consideration, together with the many disadvantages I have laboured under, in being obliged to assist that unfortunate

Member of my family, who has been so cruelly dismissed His Majesty's Household.

I enclose a copy of Lord Craginham's letter to prove to you that four quarters (ending 3rd July, Oct^r, Jan^r & April) have elapsed since the grant of my daughter's pensions, which I have been depending upon, & without which I shall be left in a most embarrassed situation, having received notice to quit my present residence in consequence of its undergoing repairs; under these circumstances I trust at any rate I may be allowed to receive what is due to my daughters, & that you will use your interest with Sir Wm. Knighton in my behalf by representing the urgency of my request.

The Case of an Old Officer, with a Wife and Seven children.

The individual whose case is here most respectfully submitted to the notice of those who can feel for the distresses of others was born in the Army, into which he entered at a very early age, and served in it for near 20 years in Flanders, Holland, Egypt and various other parts abroad, and subsequently 16 years in a public Department.

His Father was a most meritorious old Officer, who had served His King and Country near 60 years in the Army, first in Germany, and afterwards in America, and in a Military Department.

He had a brother who after serving in the Army upwards of 20 years, fell a victim to the Climate in Egypt, a few days after he had commanded a distinguished Regiment in the Battle of Alexandria.

Thus the aggregate services of three members of his family, amount to upwards of One hundred and ten years faithful and honorable service.

Reduced by a series of unfortunate circumstances too long and painful to detail, the individual whose case is here stated, is compelled to have recourse to the exertion of his talents with the hope to be able to maintain his family.

Some kind friends to whom his father's long and meritorious services, and his own are well known, have, in furtherance of his exertions, commenced a Subscription to enable him to take a School which is offered, in which line he hopes to be able to bring up his large family in such a manner as may enable them to become useful members of society.

The Noblemen, Ladies and Gentlemen who have kindly contributed to this Gentleman's relief have subscribed the sums opposite their respective names. —

Sir

I have to return you my most grateful thanks for your charitable contribution in support of, and towards helping home my Countryman Mr. Ogden. I have written, as you desired, to Capt. Sir P. Carteret a letter of acknowledgement for his donation in favor of the same individual, and shall attend to any instruction you will please to send me as to the way of obtaining the assistance which Sir W^m Knighton has also kindly offered through your medium. -

I think it proper to state, that as it is unlikely Mr. Ogden will be able to collect a sum sufficient to take him by sea to Constantinople, he is desirous, in consequence, of proceeding from hence to France, to work out his way thence through through Germany and Hungary where there are several Colonies of Armenians. It would, therefore, be desirable, that whatever Sir W^m Knighton is inclined to bestow on this poor man, he should have the Kindness to do so at once, in order to enable him to leave England the soonest possible, as the expences he is obliged to incur here for his living, little as they are, would support him double the time on the Continent, while he shall there be also getting, every
