CONDITIONS OF INSURANCE.

I. PERSONS desirous to make Insurance upon BUILDINGS, are to deliver in to the Office, or to its Agent, the following Particulars, viz.—Of what Materials the Walls and Roof of each Building, intended to be insured, are constructed—Whether the same are occupied as Private Dwellings, or how otherwise—Particularly whether any Hazardous Trade is carried on, or any Hazardous Articles are deposited therein—Where situated—Also, the Name or Names of the Occupiers.
 Houses not duly separated by Party-Walls, are deemed Brick and Timber.
 In the Insurance of PREMISES which contain any Steam-Engine, Furnace, Kiln, Stove, Coakle, Oven, or other Implement, in or by which Heat is produced (common Fire-Places excepted), the Construction and Circumstances of the same must be particularly described, at the Time of effecting the Insurance,—or if subsequently introduced, due Notice must be given to the Company, and the same be allowed by them, otherwise the Policy will be void.
 In the Insurance of GOODS, WARES, or MERCHANDIZE, the Building or Place in which the same are deposited is to be described,—the Quality and Description of such Goods;—also, whether any Hazardous Trade is carried on, or any Hazardous Articles are deposited therein.
 And if any Person or Persons shall insure his or their Buildings or Goods, and shall cause the same to be described otherwise than as they really are, to the Prejudice of the Company, or shall misrepresent or omit to communicate any Circumstance which is material to be made known to the Company, in order to enable them to judge of the Risk they have undertaken, or are required to undertake, such Insurance shall be of no Force.
 II. Goods held in Trust or on Commission, are to be insured as such, otherwise the Policy will not extend to cover such Property.
 III. No Loss or Damage to be paid on Fire happening by any Invasion, Foreign Enemy, Civil Commotion, Riot, or any military or usurped Power whatever.—Nor shall the Company be answerable for any Loss or Damage by Fire that may happen to any Hay, Corn, Seed, or other Property, by Natural Heating.
 IV. Books of Accounts, Written Securities, Bills, Bonds, Tallies, and Ready Money, cannot be insured.
 V. Printed Books, Jewels, Plate, Trinkets, China and Glass, Medals, or other Curiosities, Paintings, Drawings, Sculptures, and Wearing Apparel, are not included in any Insurance, unless such Articles are specified in the Policy.
 VI. Persons insuring Property at this Office, must give Notice of any other Insurance made elsewhere on their Behalf on the same, and cause such other Insurance to be endorsed on their Policies; in which Case each Office shall be liable to the Payment only of a rateable Proportion of any Loss or Damage which may be sustained; and unless such Notice is given, the Insured will not be entitled to recover in Case of Loss.
 VII. Leaseholders, Trustees, Mortgagees, and Reversioners, as well as Landlords, may insure their Interest in Buildings, provided the Nature of the Tenure or Interest be duly specified.

VIII. Premiums are to be paid from the Day on which the Policy commences to the Quarter-Day then next ensuing, and from thence for One Year more at least; no Order for Insurance will be of any Force unless the Premium and Duty be paid to the Office, or its Agent, or unless a Sum has been advanced and the Office or its Agent has delivered a Receipt for the same; and all Persons desirous to continue their Insurances, must make their future Payments Annually within Fifteen Days after the Day limited by their respective Policies, or the same will be void.
 IX. Upon the Death of any Person assured at this Office, the Policy and Interest therein may be continued to the Heir, Executor, or Administrator, respectively, to whom the Right of the Premises or Property shall belong, provided such Heir, Executor, or Administrator, do procure his or her Interest therein to be endorsed on the Policy, at the said Office; and Persons changing their Habitations or Warehouses, may preserve the Benefit of their Policies, if the Nature and Circumstances of such Policy be not altered; but in all such Cases, the Policy will be of no Force, unless due Notice of the Removal or Alteration be given at the Office, and the same be allowed by Endorsement on the Policy.
 X. All Persons assured by this Company, sustaining any Loss or Damage by Fire, are forthwith to give Notice to the Company at their Office in Lombard-Street, and as soon as possible after, to deliver in as particular an Account of their Loss or Damage, as the Nature of the Case will admit of, and make Proof of the same by their Oath or Affirmation, and by their Books of Accounts, or other proper Vouchers, as shall be reasonably required; and shall procure a Certificate under the Hands of the Minister and Church-Wardens, and of some reputable Householders of the Parish, not concerned in such Loss, importing that they are acquainted with the Character and Circumstances of the Person or Persons insured, and do know, or verily believe, that he, she, or they, really, and by Misfortune, without any Kind of Fraud or evil Practice, have sustained by such Fire, Loss and Damage to the Amount therein mentioned; and until such Affidavit and Certificates are produced, the Loss Money shall not be payable; also, if there appears any Fraud or false Swearing, the Claimant shall forfeit his Claim to Restitution, or Payment, by Virtue of his Policy.
 XI. When any Loss or Damage shall have been sustained by Fire, upon Property insured, the Company will either reimburse the same,—or the Assured, as soon as such Loss or Damage shall have been duly proved, shall immediately receive Satisfaction to the full Amount thereof, without Allowance of Discount, or any other Deduction whatever.—In Case any Difference or Dispute shall arise between the Assured and the Company, touching any Loss or Damage, such Difference may be submitted to the Judgment and Determination of Arbitrators indifferently chosen, whose Award in Writing shall be conclusive and binding to all Parties.
 XII. Septennial Insurances.—Persons choosing to insure for Seven Years, will be charged for Six Years only; also, for any Number of Years more or less than Seven, will be allowed a reasonable Discount, both upon the Premium and upon the Insurance Tax.
 XIII. No Receipts are to be taken for any Premiums of Insurance, but such as are printed, and issued from the Office, and witnessed by one of the Clerks or Agents of the Office.

My dear Sir,

Many thanks for your letter of this morning which gets rid of all our difficulties in regard to the House at New belonging to His Majesty, and is a sufficient authority for our giving up the application on Sir George's Quarters there.

The only name I have now any doubt about is the Shed name at Hampton Court and I cannot ascertain whether it is occupied by Lady Bloomfield under a special grant or in right of the office her Ladyship holds - if you can clear this up for me I should never be obliged to trouble you again at least on this subject.

Always, my dear Sir,
very truly & respectfully Yours

Dear Sir

I beg leave to enclose to you a paper I have just received - about a month ago I had a demand made to me for Taxes on the House at New which His Majesty has the goodness to allow me

to occupy - I found Sir George Lenthion and Mr Raspentick had the same application made to them,
to me particularly harsh,
being apprized that I should have my furniture
seized which alarmed
me a good deal - Sir G.
Lenthion quieted all my fears, telling me he had spoken to you, and all would be arranged so that I should have no

more demands for taxes,
The letter I enclosed proves the contrary, and I venture to trust you will do what you can to relieve me on this occasion.
