

H. M. to Lord North

3130

Queens House Dec. 2 1775

<sup>m</sup>
7 1/2. A.M.

Dear North, My complaint is entirely removed, and I had dressed myself with an intent to appear this day at St. James's; but Sir Richard Sibley, has I believe very properly forbid my going out so cold a day as any fresh cold may bring on a relapse; I therefore desire you will call here at any hour most convenient to you before your attendance at the House of Commons becomes necessary.

[Faint, illegible cursive handwriting on a piece of paper pasted onto a larger sheet. The text is mostly obscured by the paper's texture and fading.]

2 Dec 1778