Having just now received the Inclosed from Lord Berrington, I thought it right to send it to your Majesty, that your Majesty might be apprized of Genl.
Murray's Expectations with respect to the Government of Minorca.

I have seen Sr George Osborne, He thinks that the present Guard may be withdrawn without any Fatigue to the Soldiers or Inconvenience to the Officers, & that it is better to withdraw it for a few Days, as the Duke of Gloucester told him this morning, that Tuesday was the Day, when fresh Ships may be expected, I conclude from this as well as from other Circumstances that Admiral Boppe comes to Gorn on Tuesday.

Yours

Soon after I left your Majesty I saw Mr Rigby's Chariot at the Door of a^d Weymouth's Office; He was certainly come there by Appointment to hear what Report a^d Weymouth had to make, & it shews that the whole of this Business was preconcerted, I am persuaded that the three different Kinds of Opposition are jealous of each other, & each intending to be treated with in preference to the other, & that the Consistency & Spirit, which your Majesty has shewn will bring them at last to your own Ruin.
