Sunday night

My Dear Sir

I thank you for your letter; I know not how the franking stands - Some letters are free & some charged, - but I suppose it is settled by this time - I think there will be no harm in your calling on Sir Francis to ask the question. The object of my troubling you to day is, to mention that it quite escaped me on Friday night, - to request that you would have the kindness ^{to write to Henry Suggs} to desire him to send me a catalogue of the China

the King's Private Property - at Windsor Castle - at the Lodge at Brighton - Taking this at the same Time that we have a Catalogue from Mr Substran of what was formerly at Castle House - Be pleased also to desire him to let us have a Catalogue of all the Furniture, the private Property, of the King, at Brighton & elsewhere & he must do this, without delay -

I mention to you, in Confidence, that in a few Days, I hope to return to Warwickshire for ten Days or a fortnight which I hope will still relieve my Chest, before the winter sets in.

They may hinder remembrance to Mrs Sunders.

With great regard, Always,
Your very sincere Friend
