

Octo 23^d
1730

Sir

In obedience with Sir William Ker's orders, I send you Inventories of the Cloaks, Candelabres, Iron Stands &c, as also a List of all the Ornamental Chines, the Private Property of His Late Majesty George The Fourth, some of the Cloaks, and Candelabres have been sent to Windsor Castle, the delivery of which, will be seen in the Margin of each Page, The List of the Plate also, the Private Property of His Late Majesty George The Fourth, you have already received, and I trust that each of these Lists will, eventually be found correct.

Believe me

Sir

Yours
 most humble Servant

Benjⁿ Justham

23^o Dec. 1830

✓ Mr. J. J. Johnson

W. M. J. Johnson

To the Honour, Sir of the ^{British} Property of

His late Majesty -

==

A. B. All these ^{inventions} ^{invented} are to be in the ^{invention} ^{of}

==

P.L.H. with list of plates (P.L.H. is with gold printing) at end.