Madam

In reply to your Letter to Sub-Comptroller Livian addressed to the Parliament By the same I am directed to acquaint you that, in case of Mr. Wilnot's Leaving it in his power to substitute any Claim for Medical Attendance on persons connected with His late Majesty's Household, he should forthwith forward the particulars thereof to the Office of Survey Purveys
The late King in order that the same might be examined and allowed.

Mrs. Wilnot
Care of Mrs. Cook
