Handwritten text on aged, stained paper, likely a letter or document. The text is written in cursive and is mostly illegible due to fading and damage. There are several dark spots and stains, particularly a large one near the center. The paper is folded, and the text is written on the inside of the fold. On the right side, there is a faint circular stamp or seal.

Sir

We have been informed by our correspondants Mess^{rs} Minet & Fector. that your Royal Highness has never received the letter we had the Honour of addressing you the 31th Octob last. handing you the Invoice of the wines you were pleased to order, & which we are happy to hear are safe in your Vaultts. We hope they will justify our high opinion of them, & merit your Royal Highness's approbation.

We therefore according to your commands send a Duplicate of our former Invoice which will enable you to give Your orders respecting the payment of our draft which Mess^{rs} Minet & Tector will take the liberty of presenting to your Royal Highness. we hope you will honour us with your future commands, which will ever be executed with our utmost care & attention.

We remain most respectfully Sir

Your Royal Highness's

most obedient humble servants
