

Chas. Jenkinson,

May 5 1779

3347

In Obedience to your Majesty's commands I told Lord North all that had passed between your Majesty & d<sup>e</sup> Rockingham; he was very impatient to hear it & listened to it with great Attention.

I hear that Lord Rockingham has since given Advice to the House of Lords of a Motion he intends to make respecting Ireland.

L<sup>d</sup> North is to see Lord George Gerrard tonight concerning the proceedings in the House of Commons tomorrow.

I trouble your Majesty with a letter I have received from Lord Dunblin eldest Son to the Earl of Mansfield
As there is a great deal of good Sense & zeal for your Majesty's Service in the Letter, I wish your Majesty would in answer to it allow allow me to say that you had seen it with satisfaction & had recommended me to consult Lord Sandwich & Lord Akerst on what is proposed in it.

From Your Majesty's
Dutiful Subject
C. Kerwin
