

Ld. North

May 13th 1779. 11. o'clock P.M.

3357

Lord North has the honour of informing his Majesty, that Mr Fox moved today in the House of Commons for the proceedings of the Court Martial, ^{upon Capt. Paken} to be laid before the House, which motion was after debate rejected
by a great majority.

Agus. 7^o.

Nov. 15th.

Mr Fox afterwards moved that Mr Robert

Sturton's letter to the Admiralty should be laid before the House which occasioned a long debate, but was rejected without a division.

Thursday even. May 13. 11 o'clock P.M.