

H. C. to Lord North

3363

Lucas House May 19th 1779
5 p.m. 1779

Lord North, As the Installation of the Knights of the Bath would have reduced my leave to a Titre à titre between me and the Lord in Writing, I shall not go to St. James's to day but shall be ready to receive you here.

Faint, illegible handwriting in cursive script, likely a letter or document fragment.

19 June 1779