

For covering letter see 3380

3375 Minutes of Arrangements for Consideration

Proposed to be done immediately Lord Hillsborough to be Secretary of State vice late E. of Suffolk.
Ld Lyttleton to be removed. His place offered to Ld Beauchamp Sir Rich^d. Sutton to succeed Ld. Beauchamp.

Ld. Cha^s. Spencer desires to resign, ought to be promised an Employment of £1500. a year, this ought to be wrote to the D. of Marlborough, Lord Ches will probably decline Mr Mackay's place.

Mr. Butler is desirous of quitting the Admiralty, may change with Sir Rob^t. Worsley, and Com^{dr}. Gascoyne succeed Ld. Cha^s. Spencer

Some say he is desirous of retiring, in which case Andrew Stuart as also Mr. Sollyffe to succeed at the Board of Trade. Anne Paulett or Mr. Lytton

Sir W. Cunningham to succeed Sir Alex. Gilmour in the Green Cloth.

Mr. John Manners to be removed Gov^r. Pownall succeed.

Mr. Mackay return, if Ld. Cha^s. Spencer declines, Mr. Butler then Mr. Combe Clerk of the Green Cloth

Ld. Pembroke to be removed, Ld. Baskin succeed Comptroller Mr. Cornwall if declines Ld Westcott, or Ld Palmerstone, or Ld. Lisburne, or Mr. Penton, if it vacates the Admiralty Mr. Greville to succeed; then Gov^r. Pownall to the Board of Trade, and Mr. Butler Sir. Knutsen Whitehall

Advocate to have the whole of the Court Office in Scotland during pleasure; Mr. A. Stuart to have a provision of Baron Maudslays office of Clerk to the Register of Seditious in addition to the Board of Trade.

Strongly General, as a provision if he remains in Office of the first Great Seal Office that shall fall with a Surgeon.

Mr. Home
Mr. Crawford of Foreign Ministers.

Mr. L. J. Germain resigns

Mr. Ellis Secretary of State

Ld. Curzon First Lord of Trade.

Mr. Fox Treasurer of the Navy.

Master of the House hold if his Fran. Drake will resign one of the Board of Green Cloth, and a provision may be made for Mr. Fitzpatrick.

Lieut. Gen. of Marines to remain vacant.

When Ld. Curzon is appointed first Lord of Trade

Mr. Grenville to be Treasurer of the House, Sir Ralph

Payne Comptroller, and Sir W. Gordon Clerk of the Board of Green Cloth.