At a meeting of your Majesty's confidential Councils this day, it has been proposed to send the 2<sup>d</sup> Battalion of Lord Mordaunt's Regiment, and the 515 gentlemen intended for the reinforcement of Minorca, to Plymouth, for the better and immediate defence of that Place, in case of an an Attack of the Enemy, and that the Transports should be ready to convey the Troops from Plymouth to Minorca, in the same manner as was proposed from Portsmouth, when it may be proper to send them. This is ordered to be done if it meets with your Majesty's gracious Approbation.
