

23<sup>d</sup> June 1779

Speakers on the Bill for Augmenting the Militia in the Committee of the whole House

For the Bill —

Lord North — several times —

Lord Beauchamp, several times

Sir Grey Cooper,

Mr Robinson,

Mr Dempster

Mr Freeman,

Ed. Frederick Campbell

Mr Townall

Mr Coombe,

Mr Burrell

Mr Wyldbone

Mr Whitworth,

Mr Shigby,

Lord Nugent

Lord Advocate

Mr Macdonald,

Sir R. Sutton —

Against parts of it
altho' approving the Principle

Sir George Yonge several times

Sir George Saville — 100. times

Mr Lewis —

Sir P. J. Clarke,

Sir W. Meredith,

Lord Wm. Gordon

Mr Brett,

Mr Turner —

Sir Fletcher Norton — against the Measure dangerous to coerce, might raise Tumults & insurrections —

Mr Grenville

Mr Aubrey —

Lord Onley, on the same ground
as the speaker —

Mr W. Hartley

Mr Tuffnell

Sir Edw. Artley

Turnover

For the Bill

Mr Attorney General
Mr Secy at War

Against parts of it

Mr D. Hartley
Ld George Cavendish
Mr Byng

No Division on any Question relative to it

Mr Attorney Genl. moved for leave to bring in a Bill to suspend sev Acts which grants protection to many Seafaring Persons.

For it

Mr Attorney General
Mr Dempster
Mr Grey Cooper
Col. Onslow

Against proceedg in it
at so late an Hour & deferring
it with such dispatch

Sir George Saville
Sir George Yonge
Mr P. J. Clarke
Mr David Hartley
Ld George Cavendish

The above mentioned Gentlemen who spoke ag<sup>t</sup> the bringg in & proceeding on the Bill after debate left the House and then the Bill was read a first & second time and committed Per to morrow without any Division